

INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” indicate notes.

- Academies, 155
- Academy's Institute of Pedagogy, 102
- Accountability, 236–238
 - based on trust, 289
 - need for coordination between, 240–242
- Agency of educational system, 290
- Alignment, need for coordination between, 240–242
- Assemblage, 200, 274
- Association of Teachers and Lecturers (ATL), 160
- Australian national curriculum, 31, 34
- Autonomous curricular domains (DAC), 88, 94

- Balanced regulation, 290
- Basic school, 101ⁿ¹

- Cambridge Primary Review, 159
- Capacity building, 257
- Change management, 261
- Classroom
 - curriculum level, 11
 - curriculum making, 11
 - transactions, 11
- Classroom-based assessment (CBA), 203, 215
- Cloning materials for subjects, 161
- Collaborative practice, 201
- Common cultural heritage, 85
- Communicative discourses as curriculum policy messages, 228–229

- Communist Party, 101
- Communist regime in Czechoslovakia, 102
- Communist Rule, fall of, 103–104
- Competence-based approach, 87
- Competency, 40
- ‘Complex webs of enactment’, 178
- Contexts in curricular criticism, 30
- Coordination Group, 135–138, 252, 257
- Coordinative discourses as curriculum policy messages, 228–229

- Core curriculum reform work, 251
- Cultural capital, 154
- Curricular
 - frameworks, 115
 - reform, 79
 - turn, 277
- Curricular Autonomy and Flexibility Project (PAFC), 78, 82, 92
 - PAFC-reform, 282
 - reform plan main axes, 82–86
 - reform put into practice, 87–91
- Curriculum, 161 (see also National Curriculum (NC))
 - criticism, 29
 - deregulation, 128
 - development in England, 151
 - frameworks, 140
 - knowledge requirements, 232
 - in motion, 10
 - policy in Netherlands, 129–132
 - regulation, 127–128
 - renewal in Finland, 250–253

- research, 6
- scholarship, 29
- as social practice, 4–8
- studies, 1
- theory, 227
- work, 1
- Curriculum and Assessment Board (CAB), 189
- Curriculum Committee of the Governing Board, 33
- Curriculum for Excellence (CfE), 34, 286
 - critique, 184
 - programme, 175, 180–181
- Curriculum levels
 - dovetailing of, 143–144
 - and products, 10
- Curriculum making, 2–8, 53, 99, 273
 - approaches to defining levels, 9–12
 - examples, 3
 - levels, layers or sites, 8–12
 - impact of new landscape on, 159–163
 - processes, strategies and flows of, 276–282
 - sites of activity, 12–22
- Curriculum Review Committee, 63
- Curriculum.nu*, 125, 131
 - approach and timeline, 134–137
 - motives and aims, 132–134
 - preliminary outcomes, 138
- Cyprus, 54*n*1, 282
 - findings, 60–61
 - locating curriculum making, 55–58
 - modes of inquiry and theoretical perspectives, 58–60
 - subject-area counsellor as hybrid expert-subject, 61–65
 - subject-area counsellor as subject and object, 65–68
- Czech reform, 113
- Czech schools, 106, 109
- Czechia, curriculum making in, 99–100
- Datafication, 44
 - of schooling, 31
- Democratization, 79
- Department for Education (DfE), 152
- Digitalization, 44
- Discursive institutionalism, 226–227
 - coordinative and communicative discourses in, 228
- Discursive power, 60
- District
 - authorities, 283
 - curriculum making, 253
 - school authorities, 107*n*5
- Dovetailing of curriculum levels, 143–144
- Economic reform, 104
- Economization of education
 - policy, 42
- EdTech companies, 31, 44–45, 281
- Education Endowment Fund (EEF), 156–157
- Education Reform Act, 152
- Education Research Institute, 107*n*6
- Education(al), 43 (see also Finnish National Agency for Education (FNAE))
 - change, 253
 - educational/curricular policy, 114
 - policies, 81
 - policy, 33
 - reform in Scotland, 179
 - stakeholders, 259–260
- England
 - curriculum development in, 151
 - epistemological fog, 163–165
 - impact of new landscape on curriculum making, 159–163
 - rearranging curriculum development landscape, 154–159
 - recurring irony, 166–167

- English language teaching (ELT), 111
 Epistemological fog, 163–165
 Equity, 236–238
 Equivalence, 236–238
 Europe
 curriculum making, 273
 learning from curriculum making in, 288–290
 European Commission, 38
 European Council, 223
 European Union (EU), 106, 223, 275
 Europeanization of education, 38
 Evaluation message system, 36–37
- Finland
 curriculum renewal in, 250–253 empirical findings and lessons learned in Finnish curriculum reform, 256–261 in global scene, 247–250
 shared sense-making as tool for transformative learning in curriculum making, 253–256
 Finnish curriculum reforms, 250 empirical findings and lessons learned in, 256–261
 Finnish National Agency for Education (FNAE), 247 (see also Scottish Education) officer from, 257
 officials, 251–252
 ‘Finnish Parents’ League, 252
 Framework curriculum, 128
 Framework Educational Programmes, 107
 Free schools, 155
 Freedom of education, 129
Future of Knowledge and Skills
 2030 project, 40
- General Certificate of Secondary Education (GCSE), 165
 GERM-inspired standards framework, 130
 Global Curriculum Speak, 248
 Global Educational Reform Movement, 160
 Globalization, 42–43 of evaluation message system, 39
 Goodlad’s model, 10
 Governing of schools, 226, 231–236
 Greek-Cypriot educational system, 56, 60, 69
Green Paper (1999), 107
- Healthy School movement, 108
 Hybrid teacher-subjects, 285
- ICEA Report, 185–188
 IDEAS network, 19
 Impact measure, 156
 Implementation gap, 183
 Individual narratives, 100
 Initial teacher education (ITE), 155, 161*n*5
 Inspectorate of Education, 131
 Institute of Pedagogy, 103
 Institutional curriculum level, 10–12
 legacy, 101–103
 Instructional curriculum level, 10
 Integral curriculum review in Netherlands balancing curriculum regulation, space and support, 139–144 curriculum policy in Netherlands, 129–132 curriculum system web, 127
 curriculum.nu, 132–138
 input and output regulation, 127 setting stage, 125–128
 International Council of Educational Advisers (ICEA), 176
 International Large-Scale Assessments (ILSAs), 37, 40
 Interpretive labour, 100, 114, 116
- Junior Cycle for Teachers (JCT), 207, 217–218
 Junior Cycle Framework (JCF), 203

- Junior Cycle Reform (JCR), 199, 202–204, 214, 278
in Ireland, 182
- Knowledge
economy discourse, 43
sharing, 261
'Knowledge rich' approach, 166–167
- Language, 60
- Lawrence Stenhouse in Schools
Council, 152
- Learning Framework*, 40
- Lgr 11 (curriculum reform),
231–232, 236–237, 240
- Lisbon strategy, 223
- Lisbon Treaty of 2000, 43
- Literacy standards, 130
- Local pedagogical planning, 237
- Lower secondary education in Ireland
curriculum making, 201–202
findings, 206–216
implications for curriculum making, 217–219
JCR, 202–204
landscape, 200
methodology, 204–206
- Macro-level curriculum making,
16–18, 191
- Management strategies, 255
- Marketization, 277
- Marxism, 101
- Material flow, 201, 210–213
- Mediators, 62, 64
- Meso actors, 287
- Meso curriculum making, 18–19
- Meso-level curriculum making, 192
- Meta-skills, 190
- Methodological globalism, 35
- Methodological nationalism, 35
- Micro-level curriculum making,
20–21, 192–193
- Middle ground and mobility importance, 289–290
- Ministry of Education, 107, 135, 138
- Ministry of Education and Culture
(MoEC), 54–55 change of government and administration in, 57
- Multiple Academy Trust (MAT), 167
- Municipal actors, 233
- Nano curriculum making, 21–22
- NAPLAN in Australia, 37
- Narrative, 189 international actors meeting grey zone, 104–106 on meso level, 104 voluntary activity to universally binding law, 106–110
- National Agency for Education
(NAE), 224–225, 237
- National Council for Curriculum and Assessment
(NCCA), 202
- National Curriculum (NC), 152 data and potential global privatization of curricula, 44–45
global and regional contexts, 41–43 globalising message systems of schooling, 36–41
making, 29–36
- National Educational Programme, 108
- National Improvement Framework
(NIF), 186
- National jurisdictions, 248
- National Large-Scale Assessments, 37
- National policy framing, 176
- National/global relations, 36
- Neoliberal globalization, 30
- Netherlands, curriculum policy in, 129–132
- Netherlands Institute for Curriculum
Development, 136
- Network of Health Promoting
Schools, 106
- New curricula, 5, 108

- New Education Act (2004), 107
 Novice teachers, 162
 Numeracy standards, 130
- Office for Standards in Education or Ofsted, 152–153
- Official curriculum texts, 1
 Official ministry, 71
 Ofsted Inspection Framework, 158
 Online teaching, 44–45
 ‘Open field curriculum’ approach,
 128
- Open Society Fund (OSF), 106
- Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD),
 38–40, 81, 176, 178,
 223
- Papanastasiou, 43
- Participatory curriculum making,
 288–289
- Participatory reforms, 250
- Pedagogical content knowledge, 32
- Pedagogical Institute (PI), 54–55
- Pedagogical Teams, 90
- Pedagogy, 22, 30–31, 201
- Performativity, 166, 277
- Personal Development, 154
- PISA, 247
 for Schools, 39
 test, 34, 37–38
- PISA shock in Japan (2003), 38
- PIXL, 157
- Plans for learning, 125
- Policy, 100
 policy-making, 187 sphere, 228
 transmission, 181–185
- Political reforms, 80
- Portugal
 curriculum changes, 79–82
 curriculum reform in, 77–78 main results of experimental period, 91–93
 methodological approach, 86–87
 PAFC reform plan main axes,
 82–86
- PAFC reform put into practice,
 87–91
 timeline of Portuguese policy phases, 80
- Portuguese educational system, 77
- Portuguese schools, 88
- Post-socialist curricular reform in Czechia, 99
 narrative on meso level, 104–110 school principals and teachers, 110–113
 systemic level, 101–104
- PPI schools, 88
- Privatization of schooling, 45
- Professional space, 140–141
- Professional Standards for Scottish teachers, 162
- Programa Nacional de Promoção
 do Sucesso Escolar
 (PNPSE), 81
- Programmatic curricula production, 17
- Programmatic curriculum level, 11
- Pupil Equity Funding (PEF), 186
- Qualification and Curriculum Agency, 154
- Qualifications and Curriculum
 Development Agency,
 154
- Race to the Top*, 43
- Rámcové vzdělávací programy*
 (RVP), 107
- Regional Improvement
 Collaboratives (RICs),
 176, 187, 282–283
- Regioplan study, 137
- Regulated space, 139
- Republic of Cyprus, 54
- Resource distribution, 236–238
- Rhizoanalysis, 205–206
- SAPERE, 158
- School district sites of activity, 252 leaders, 159
 principals and teachers, 110–113

- school-based curriculum, 20
- school/health psychologists, 105–106
- schools/teachers, 54
- system, 152
- School curriculum, 7, 112
 - in Portugal, 79
- 'School Matters' research project, 249
- School-based curriculum development (SBCD), 107
- Schooling, 42
 - central interrelated message systems of, 30–31
 - datafication, 31
 - globalising message systems of, 36–41
- Schools Curriculum and Assessment Authority, 154
- Scotland's Regional Improvement Collaboratives, 17
- Scottish College for Educational Leadership, 187
- Scottish Education
 - CfE, 180–181
 - curriculum making across system, 190–193
 - curriculum reform in, 175, 178
 - ICEA Report, 185–188
 - policy transmission, 181–185
 - 'refreshed' CfE narrative, 188–190
 - Scottish context, 177–179
- Scottish Government, 179, 183
- Scottish National Party (SNP), 179
- Scottish National Standardized Assessments (SNSA), 37
- Self-improving school system, 155
- Semiotic flow, 201, 206–210
- Shared sense-making as tool for transformative learning in curriculum making, 253–256
- Shock therapy, 104
- Silos, 213
- 'Site-specific' approaches, 126
- 'Sitting-with-Nellie' approach, 163
- Small School, 111
- Social Democrat rule (1998–2006), 107
- Social Democrats, 115
- Social flow, 201, 213–216
- Social power, 60
- Social realist work, 34
- Socialist legacy and transformation processes, 101–104
- Societal curriculum level, 10–11
- Soviet model, 102
- State-based curriculum making, 17–18
- STEM education, 113
- 'Step by Step' school restructuring model, 106
- Strategic compliance, 184
- Strategic curriculum mix, 139–143
- 'Students' profile', 87
- Study of Social and Emotional Skills (SSES), 39
- Subject, Learning and Assessment Review (SLARs), 212, 215–216
- Subject-area counselors, 57–60
 - as hybrid expert-subject, 61–65
 - as subject and object, 65–68
- Superintendent in small-sized municipality, 233
- 'Support now, sell later' strategy, 44
- Supporters, 61–62, 64
- Supra curriculum making, 14–16
- Supra level, 126
 - discourses, 179
- Supra-space, 201
- Sweden, 223–224
 - coordinative and communicative discourses as curriculum policy messages, 228–229
 - methodological considerations, 229–231
 - purpose and research questions, 225–226
 - theoretical framework, 226–231
 - transformations of transnational education policy discourses, 239–242

- transnational and national discourses, 231–238
- Swedish Association of Local Authorities and Regions (SALAR), 235
- Swedish School Inspectorate, 225
- Swedish School System and Curriculum Reform of 2011, 224–225
- Systematic quality assurance, 235
- Systemic narratives, 100
- Systemic policy in education, 278
- Takayama's analysis, 38
- Teacher
 - action as curriculum makers, 56
 - associations, 106
 - collaboration, 287
 - education, 162
 - teacher-proof curricula, 2
- Teacher agency, 140
 - importance of meso activity for, 282–287
- Teachers Toolkit, The, 156
- Teaching-learning process, 89
- Thatcher's 1988 Education Reform Act, 42
- Times Educational Supplement Scotland*, 186
- TIMMS, 113
- Transnational education
 - policy discourses, transformations of, 239–242
- Transversal competencies, 248
- UK parliament in London, 179
- Universal literacy, 30
- Velvet Revolution, 103
- Visegrad countries, 106
- Vygotsky's theory of proximal zones, 103
- Webs of power, 65
- White Paper (2001), 107
- World Health Organization (WHO), 30, 105