

Index

- ABB Robotics, 54
- Academic theories, 114
- Accounting systems, defining, 65
- Acknowledging, 36
- Actionable knowledge, 44
- Activated resources, 49
- Activities-Resources-Actors (ARA), 255
 - actor dimension of, 221
 - model, 219, 225, 237, 239, 240, 242, 261, 264, 267, 268, 272
- Adaptation, 107, 108, 110, 119, 120
- ARA. See Activities-Resources-Actors (ARA)
- Arm's-length relationships, 78
- ARPANET, 175
- Asset, 12

- B2B operations, 194
- B2G operations, 194
- Bill of Material (BOM)
 - purchases, 69
- Biotech start-up company, 52
- Biotech valley, 113
- Bofors network's relationship, 165
- Borderless nature of innovation
 - activity, 137
- Boundaries, central features of, 224
- Boundary issues, 215
- Boundary setting, 214, 215
 - characteristics, 225–226
 - methodological reflections, 216–219
 - two archetypes of, 223–225
- Business critical technologies, 230
- Business deals, 65
- Business-defined resources, 95

- Business interactions, 33, 37, 39
 - innovations, outcomes of, 107–109
- Business management, 29
- Business networks, 11, 35, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 102, 145, 214, 218, 219, 280
 - boundary setting, characteristics of, 225–226
 - interactivity
 - behind interaction, 279–281
 - behind interactivity, 282–284
 - dimension in economic development, 285–287
 - economies, 275–279
 - importance of interaction, 277–279
 - interactivity uses, 284–285
 - strategising and economising, 221–226
 - task of management, 30–34
 - two archetypes of boundary settings, 223–225
 - understanding setting/moving boundaries, 223
 - value of resources, 32
- Business/non-business partners, 95
- Business relationships, 9, 254, 257
 - interaction processes, 266–270, 277
- Business skills, 39
- Business textbooks, 29
- Business ventures, 98, 100
- Business World. See World of Business
- Buyer prescribes, 78
- Buying firms, 79

- Buying organisations, 71, 73, 78, 82, 85
- Calculations, 64
- Capabilities, 43–45
- Captive governance modes, 188, 192–193
- Captive mode, 193
- Capturing interacted values, 62–66
- Car in use, 3–4
- Case studies, 203, 207, 212
- Catch, 22, 96
- Category management, 192
- Category sourcing models, 74
- Central business process, 13
- Channels, 230
- China's market socialism, 169
- Chinese community, 130
- Chinese government, 124
- Chinese ownership, 130
- Cluster diamond model, 127
- Co-creation processes, 57
- Collaboration, 67, 68, 72, 75, 77, 84
- Collective condition, 279, 280, 281, 282
- Company's customer network, 171
- Compensation, 60
- Complementary activities, 240
- Conflict, 245
- Confronting, 100
- Constellation of resources, 261
- Contemporary cohesion policy attributes, 139
- Continuous business relationships, 200
- Continuous buyer supplier, 202
- Co-opetition, 42
- Coping, 99, 221
- Corruption, 174
- Cost-benefit consequences, 91
- Cost management practices, 53
- Costs before revenues, 279
- Creating value, 30
- Criticism, 183
- Customer interface, 99
- Customer valuation, 53
 - creation, 71
 - importance of, 48
 - systematic models, 49
- DAN-Technology (DANT), 236
- Deal structures, 58
- Designed financial structure, 171
- Developing business relationships, 29, 30, 34
- Developing initial relationships, 92
- Developing setting, 91
- Diffused interdependencies, 90
- Distributed policy-making, 118
- DNA analysis technology, 265
- Dynamics of interaction, 113
- Dynamics underpinning innovation, 110
- Economic policy, 14–22
- Economic research, 14–22
 - challenge for, 23–25
- Economics of interaction, 278
- Economic structures, 13
- Economic substance, 10
- Economic value, 2
- Economic venture, 158
- Economists, 276
- Educational concerns, 187
- Electronic manufacturing service (EMS), 171
- Empiricist Research, 198
- Entrepreneurship studies, 88
- Environmental concerns, 187
- European Commission (EC), 124
- European Union (EU), 142
 - EU Cohesion Policy, 126
 - regulatory activity, 110
- Exchange and sharing of information, 56

- Financial gains
 - and losses, 50
- Financial instruments, 115
- Financial structure, design of, 165
- Firm-centric perspective
 - borderless nature of innovation activity, 138
 - borders of place, 131–132
 - empirical findings of place, 129–134
 - heterogeneity of place, 130–131
 - heterogeneity of regions, 136, 138
 - notes to future policy, 138–139
 - notes to future research, 137–138
 - place and economic activity, 136–139
 - region-centric, 134–136
 - relatedness of places, 133–134, 138
- Firms' abilities, 137
- Fish produced, in Norway, 6
- Five modes for supply-chain governance, 180
- Ford, 223, 224
- 4R model, 205, 243
- Framing, 102
- Friction, 109
- Fund, regional development, 126

- Gadde's work, 223
- Galison's analysis, 210, 211
- Galison's distinction, 198
- General Electric, 223, 224
- Geographical territories, 119
- German market, 245
- Globalization, 198, 206

- Hand-to-mouth, 71
- Heterogeneity, 191
 - of regions, 136, 138
- Homogeneity, 191

- Homogeneous product markets, 7
- Hygiene companies, 167

- IKEA's Lack Table, 4
- IKEA's supply network, 51
- Image-based approach, 21
- Image-based methodology (IMP), 3, 48, 207, 209, 258
 - community, 3, 240
 - conference, 3
 - firm-centric IMP research, 129
 - group, 2
 - influenced research, 125
 - network analysis, 218
 - research, 11, 120
 - ambition of, 7
 - stream, development of, 2–3
 - setting, 12
- Image distortion, 197–198
- IMP. See Image-based methodology (IMP); Industrial Marketing and Purchasing (IMP)
- Indirect relationships, 161
- Industrial districts, Italian phenomenon of, 143
- Industrial Marketing and Purchasing (IMP), 106, 141, 157, 158, 159, 177, 214
 - boundary issue, 214
 - intentionality, intentional actors and networks, 219–221
 - interactive business world, making sense of, 289
- Journal, 295–297
- political actor, 144
- regional policies, 143
- scholars view markets, 142
- Industrial network literature, 107
- Industrial practice
 - policymaking, interaction, 117–120

- Influencing, 150
- Initial business relationships acquiring a face, 92–94
 allocating resources in starting up, 94–95 challenge of relating-developing, 91 gaining a friend, 92–94 jointly developing solutions, 91–92
- Innovations, 72, 75, 84
 development, 175
 public purchasing creating, 186 networks, 113
 outcomes of business interactions, 107–109 policy, 105–121
 academic entrepreneurship, 111–112
 actors, 110–111
 critiques of, 110
 instruments, 114 markets, 110–111
 processes, 117
 systems of innovation (SI)
 approach, 113
 unexpected effects of, 114–117
 processes, 107
- Innovative clusters, 126
- Interactions, 13, 142, 143, 146, 147, 149 business landscape
 boundary issues, 215
 model, 205, 254
- Interactive business landscape challenges of establishing a new business, 89–91 new business venture managing, 99–102
- Interactive business world, 13, 14, 22, 197 approaching, 201–207 challenge, 198–201
 image and logic, 207–211
 image-based methodologies, 208–210
 image distortion, 197–198
 logic-based methodologies, 210–211
- Interactive interfaces, 80, 84
- Interactivity, 280
- Interdependencies, 33, 41, 235, 241
 actor interaction, 244–246 coping with, 249–250 degree of interactivity, 283 double-sided nature of, 248–249 in IMP research, 237–239 integration of activities, 239–241 interplay between activity integration and resource interfaces, 246–247 resource interfaces, 241–243 significance of, 235–237 specialisation and concerns, 283
- Interdependent relationships, network-like structure of, 260–265 challenge of researching, 261–263 dynamics, 265
 interrelatedness, 263–264
- Interface, 68–69, 74, 75, 77, 81–85 interactive, 77 specified, 77
 standardised, 77
 supplier, 78–81
 translation, 77
- Internal rate of return (IRR)
 calculations, 54
- Inter-organizational business, 10
 relationships
 capturing, complex content, 257–258 challenge of change, 258–260

- continuity in, 255–260
 - two sidedness, challenge of, 256–257
- Interviews, multiple, 268
- Investing, 151
- Investments, 106
- Italian SMEs, 145
- Joint solutions, 279
- Joint value creation, 51, 52
- Just-in-time, 71
- KDC, 255
- Known risks, 118
- Learning, 117
 - oriented policymaking practices, 117
 - processes, 108
- Liability, 12
- Limited control, 12
- Locomotives, 113
- Logic-based methodologies, 208
 - Galison's distinction, 210
- Longitudinal research design
 - approach, 270
- Long-term financial consequences, 64
- Lump sum payments, 59
- Make or Buy decision, 181
- Making-or-buying choice models, 154
- Management, 14–22, 101
 - accounting, 50
 - challenge for, 23–25
 - continuing process of interaction, 37–38
 - implications for, 15–18
 - integrative function in solution development, 39–40
 - interaction lens-living with dualities, 41–43
 - practice of, 35
 - sense-making for business, 35–37
 - skills, 28, 33, 43–45
- Managerial action, 10, 30, 34
- Managerial decisions, 43
- Managerial interventions, 38
- Managers, 250
 - ability, 16
- Managing, 32, 41
- Market exchange interaction, 142
- Market governance mode, 191, 194
- Material investments, 158
- Material resource dimension, 93
- Mauritius Free Port, 133
- Mauritius' involvement, 133
- Meaningful policies, 135
- Measured action, 118
- Measurements, 56, 64
- Medical treatment, 5
- Mental linkages, 217
- Meta-actor, 228
- Methodological approaches, 200, 201, 203, 207
- Methodological challenges, 272
- Methodological reflections, 216–219
- Ministry of Defence, 170
- Modular governance modes, 188, 192–193
- Mölnlycke's R&D unit, 167
- Monetary dimension, 50
- Multinational corporations, 119
- Municipalities, 145
- Mutuality, 278
- Neoliberal economic, 169
- Network actors, 226–231
 - collective dimension of setting boundaries, 230
 - extending conceptions of boundaries, 226–231
 - intentional constellations of actors/networks, 228–229

- multi-dimensional conception of boundaries, 230–231
 - strategising by setting, widening or narrowing boundaries, 227–228
- Network design, 159, 160, 162, 163, 165, 166, 169
- Network dynamics, 265
- Networking, 91, 95, 99, 100, 101, 102, 220
- Networking challenges
 - cope with multiple relationships, 95–99
 - implications of relating, 99–102
 - multiple actors/different logics, 95–97
 - new venture
 - multiple identities, 98
 - organising, 98–99
- Network-like structure, 33, 263
- Network of interdependent business relationships, 88
- Network orchestration, 159
- New business ventures, 88–95, 97
 - challenges and space for action, 100
 - in interactive business landscape, managing, 99–102
 - management team, 101
 - multiple identities, 98
 - organising, 98–99
 - relating and networking, 99
- Newly perceived phenomenon, 202
- Non-disclosure agreement, 61

- Observing resource, 258
- Open book accounting (OBA), 55
- Opera Software case, 60
- Opera web-browser, 49
- Opposing boundaries, 230
- Organisational issues, 83
 - buyer's opportunity, 83
- Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), 113, 124, 197, 204
- Owned company, 160
- Owner relationships, 157, 159–161, 160, 161, 162, 165, 166
 - content and consequences, 163–165
 - importance of, 171–172
 - owned companies' use of, 166–168
 - parallel network force, 161
 - private to state, 170
 - public, 168–169
 - 75 years of different types, 169–171
 - state to private, 171
 - utilisation, 165–166
- Ownership deal, 61
- Ownership matters, 157

- Parallel force, experiences of, 161–163
- Pattern of activities, 261
- Phenomenon-based research, 200
- Place-based approaches, 128
- Place-based policies, 138, 139
- Plurality of Actors
 - implementation, 148–151
 - influencing, 150–151
 - investing, 151
 - setting rules, 149
- Policy instruments, 114, 115
- Policy intervention, 174
- Policy makers, 14, 124, 146
 - implications for, 18–20
- Policymaking, 117
 - implications for research, 120–121
 - interactively, 119
 - processes, 114, 118
 - research, 114

- Policy processes, 116
 - non-linearity of, 118–119
 - polycymaking by interactions/
networks, 119–120
 - problem of boundaries, 119
- Policy stakeholders, 120
- Problem recognition, 31
- Product solution, 5
- Prohibit fraud, 174
- Public Actors
 - network of regional policy, roles of, 151–154
- Public innovation policies, 115
- Public owner relationships,
168–169
- Public policymakers, 149, 153, 154
- Public/policy owners, 61
- Public procurement, 174
 - analytical framework, 178
 - challenges, 184
 - efficiency, 185
 - ‘make-and-buy’ decisions,
185–186
 - challenges and five governance
modes, 193–194
 - five supply-chain governance
modes, 179–180
 - extreme governance modes,
180
 - market as governance structure,
182
 - context, 183
 - synthesis on translations, 182
 - translations of theory,
182–183
 - market theories, 178–179
 - translations, 178–179
 - purchasing and relations to suppliers, 177
 - purchasing as instruments of public policy, 187
 - purchasing creating innovations,
186
 - role of, 174–177
 - vertically integrated governance structure, 181
 - context, 181–182
 - synthesis on translations, 182
- Public purchasing, 174, 175, 185
- Public sector, 184
- Purchasing, 68–75, 80
 - behaviour, 80
 - development role of, 79–80
 - maturity models, 71
 - organisations, 193
 - work, 186
- Purchasing and supply management
(PSM), 68–69, 77
 - development of, 70–73
 - function, 84
 - implications of IMP, 68
 - IMP Research, 75–77
 - over time, 69–70
 - roles and interfaces, 81–83
 - strategic issues, 73–75, 80
- Q-cells, 132
- Quarterly finance, 196
- R & D consortia, 34
- R&D firms, 96
- Rational economic agents, 158
- Rationalisation, 76
 - role, 78–79
- Real life, 7
- Regional agencies, 145
- Regional cohesion policy, 139
- Regional development, 126, 127, 128, 134
 - fund, 126
 - policies, 141, 142, 143, 145
 - targets of, 144–146
 - vague concept of, 146
- Regional policies, 151
 - actors, 144
 - implementation, 148–151

- network, public actors roles, 151–154
- Region-centric policies, 129
- Relatedness of place, 137
- Relational governance mode, 187, 189
 - IMP school as reflected by translations, 189–191
 - public-sector context, 188
 - synthesis on translations, 189
 - translations made, 188–189
- Relationship, 267
 - active owner, 164
 - assessment, 82
 - development, 278, 280
 - form, 41
 - mode, 190
 - passive owner, 163
 - reciprocal, 220
- Research and development (R&D), 54
- Researching
 - business relationships, 256
 - implications for, 20–22
 - interaction, 268, 272
 - relationships, 257
 - relative openness, 97
- Resources, 90
 - based view, 30
 - combinations
 - long-term effects of, 63
 - constellation, 264
 - heterogeneity, 49
 - interfaces, 242, 243
 - mediator, 98
 - renewer, 98
- Restrictors, 230
- Return of investments, 196
- Revenue model, 57
- Rigidity, 60
- Robust data, 199
- Role model, 199
- Role of Management
 - in interactive business world, 28–30
- Routine interaction, 38
- SCA's R&D department, 167
- Sense-making, 35
- Setting rules, 149
- Short-term interaction, 38
- Skills, of managers, 33
- SMEs, 145
- Social investments, 158
- Social structure, 244
- Spaces for action, 99
- Specialization in technological development, 196
- Specified interfaces, 77
- Squeezing, 59
- Standardised interfaces, 77
- Start-ups, 93, 98, 102, 250
 - allocating resources, 94–95
- Structuring role, 76, 80–81
- Substantial interaction, 285
- Supplier-customer
 - interfaces, 172
- Supplier interfaces, 78–79, 79–81, 83–85
- Supplier relationships, 166
- Supply chain management (SCM), 241
- Supply management, 67–86
- Swedish Agency for Public Procurement, 189
- Systems of innovation (SI)
 - approach, 113
- Target costing, 54, 55
- Tax-payers' money, 177
- Technician, 287
- Technological advancements, 73
- Technological development
 - changes, 247
- Technology maturity staircase (TMS), 56

- Technology transfer offices (TTOs), 112
- Theory development., 198, 199
- Theory testing, 21
- Time to market, 52
- Traditional market exchange, 179
- Tradition zones, 207
- Trans Aortic Valve Implant (TAVI), 5, 7, 49
- Translation interfaces, 77, 78, 79, 83
- Transportation service, 5–6
- Truth claim, 199
- TT Electronics (TTE), 236

- United East India Company, 73
 - the Netherlands, 70
- Use of resources, 109

- Value appropriation, 16, 48, 51, 52, 60, 63, 64, 66
 - aims of regional policies, 146–148
 - processes, 143
- Value capturing, in interactive network context, 57–62
- Value chain orientation, 71
- Value creation, 40, 48–53, 57–66, 148
 - aims of regional policies, 146–148
 - within an episode, 40
 - co-creation, 34, 39
 - processes, 146, 147
 - within relationship, 40–41
 - through network position, 41
- Value, in interactive business world, 30
- Value measurement, 16, 48
 - in interactive network context, 52–57
- Videoton, 171

- Web of actors, 261
- Well-established businesses, 90
- Western market economies, 168
- Word politics, 148
- Work-life concerns, 187
- World of Business, 1–2, 8
 - descriptive and positive conceptualization, 15
 - distinctive features, 8–14, 29
 - interaction, 12–14
 - inter-organizational business relationships, 9–10
 - network structures, 10–12
 - feature of, 23–25
- World of business, 1
- World of economy, 1

- Yin/Yang principles, 42