ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to thank the European Academy of Management community and the scholars at the SIG of Entrepreneurship; while there, I had the opportunity to increase my knowledge and curiosity about the world of entrepreneurship and mostly to discuss my research topic with colleagues and friends. In particular, I would like to express my gratitude to Andrea and Massimiliano for involving me in this important research community.

Thank you to my friends Marco, Martina, and Sara; during these last months, in the middle of a pandemic, your support in our ‘social control’ virtual room has been invaluable.

A special thank you to my Mentor, Professor Vincenzo Cavaliere, who always supports me even when he does not agree with my point of view.

Finally, sincere appreciation goes to my family, who have always supported my decisions and cheered me on. To my father, who has all of an entrepreneur’s virtues and vices. Three years later, I am sure that you are close to realising all your innovative ideas. To my mother, cornerstone of our family. To my precious brothers, Federico e Francesco, who always remind me how crazy, funny, and great our family is.
