

It has been brought to the attention of the publisher that the article “Digital health technology enhances resilient behaviour: evidence from the ward”, by Iacoppo Rubbio, Manfredi Bruccoleri, Astrid Pietrois and Barbara Rogonese (2019) in International Journal of Operations and Production, Vol. 39 No. 2, doi: 10.1108/DPM-05-2018-0150, was published in the incorrect issue. This occurred due to an editorial error.

The article will be published in the forthcoming special issue “Dealing with the unpredictable: supply chain resilience”.
