

INDEX

- Aaron Ansell, 1–2, 264
- AB, 100
- Account book, 83–91
- Accounting, 92
- Activities, budget and, 226–235
- Adalberto Barreto, 90–91
- Adequate food, 118
- Advans La Fayette, 100
- Age, 236–237
- Agencia Colombiana para la Reintegración* (ACR), 220
- Agencia para la Reincorporación y la Normalización* (ARN), 220, 222
 - case of ARN, 233–235
 - completion of ARN program, by department, 235–236
 - future of, 239–240
- Agency for Reintegration and Reincorporation (ARN), 218
- Agricultural development, 205
- Al-Khidmat* case, 57–58
- Allianz Infrastructure, 21–22
- Alta Consejería para la Reintegración* (ACR), 220
- Altruism in surrogacy, 45–47
- Alumni association, 85–86
- Anonymity narrative, 231
- Anthropological conceptualisations of infrastructure, 8
- Anthropological methods, 102
- Anthropology, 6, 8, 218, 254–255
 - changes in, 262–264
 - training in, 255–256
- Antonio Mourão Cavalcante, 262, 265–266
- Architecture, 20–21
- Armed groups, 236–237
- Asset, 6
- Assisted reproduction technologies (ART), 34
- Autodefensas Unidas de Colombia* (AUC), 220
- Backwardness, 254
- Barbados, 260–261
- Bazalgette, 14–15
 - Equity Ltd, 21–22
- Belongingness, 87
- Benzadores*, 268–269
- Berlin style, 177–178
- Bernstorffstraßenfest and Flea Market, 146–147
- Better Evidence Project (BEP), 222
- Biological parents (bio-parents), 40
- “Bottom of pyramid” approaches, 192–193
- Bourdieu’s concept of field, 60–61
- Boys and Girls Institute (BGI), 118
- Brand, 142–143
- Brazilian anthropologists as urban educated intellectuals, 267–269
- Brazilian intellectuals, 254–255, 267
- Brazilian polity, 258
- Bronislaw Malinowski, 255–256
- Buddhism, 56–57
- Budget and activities, 226–235
- Business models, companies and, 145–149
- Business partnerships, corporate narratives of, 199–203
- Business secret, 153
- C&A, 152
- Cabos eleitorais* (electoral organizers), 264
- Cachaça*, 258

- Cadea de bemfeitorias* (Chain of benefits), 266–267
- Calculations, 92
- Capital, 7
- Cash4Brands, 137–138, 140, 143, 145, 151, 154–155
- SecondHerzog and, 147
- Ceremonial exchanges in Korea and Kye, 79–81
- Charisma, 11–13
- Charity, 56–57
- recipient, 122
- Chief executive officers (CEOs), 10–11
- Child illnesses, 89
- Christianity, 56–57
- Clientage, 4
- “Clothes in Affluence”, 140
- Clothing, 3–4
- Coffee
- cooperatives, 190
- market, 189
- Collective debt, 111
- Collective labor, 208–209
- Collective shame, 111
- Colombia, 4
- Colombian conflict, 218–221
- Commended conditional cash transfer (CCT), 254
- Commensality, 125
- Commercial partnerships, 199
- Commercial surrogacy, 33–35, 37
- constructing fair price, 41–45
- methodology, 38
- in motherland, 47–49
- Russian assisted reproduction technologies industry, 37–38
- surrogates view, 39–41
- sympathetic worker, 45–47
- Commission model, 143–144
- Commodity (performance of), 178
- Commodity, 35, 37, 174, 177
- chain, 167–168
- Communal fund, 76
- expenditures, 88–91
- management, 83–91
- Communal governance, 208–209
- Community finance, 99–100
- in Nigeria, 99
- rise of, 99–100
- Community study, 258
- Community therapy (terapia comunitarian), 268–269
- Compadrazgo*, 259
- Companies and business models, 145–149
- Complex cultures, 255
- Comunalidad*, 208–209
- Consensus, 11, 13
- Consumption infrastructure, 139
- Contemporary capitalism, 11
- Contemporary certification-based fair trade market, 190
- Contemporary fair trade narratives, 205
- Cooperativismo and divisions within producer organizations, 206–209
- Cooperativistas, 188
- Coronelismo*, 259
- Corporate accountability, 188
- Corporate narratives of business partnerships, 199–203
- Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 192–193
- Cost-effectiveness, 240–245
- characteristics of ex-combatants, 236–237
- Colombian conflict, 218–221
- completion of ARN program, by department, 235–236
- economic assistance, 242–243
- economic insecurity, 243–244
- across entire participant population, 240–241
- FARC identity, 223–225
- future of ARN, 239–240
- geographic and demographic characteristics, 235–236
- methodology, 222–223
- observations and analysis, 246–247
- by other segmentations, 245

- of peacebuilding, 222
- reintegration program, 226, 235, 241–242
- safety, 237–239
- scope and limitations, 247–248
- security, 244
- Cost-effectiveness analysis (CEA), 222
- COVID-19 pandemic, 1, 34–35
- Cultural forms, 170–180
- Cultural framing of surrogacy, 36–37
- Cultural meaning (performance of), 165–166
- Cultural pattern, 254
 - Brazilian anthropologists as urban educated intellectuals, 267–269
 - changes in anthropology, 262–264
 - fieldwork in Southeastern Minas Gerais State, 256–262
 - fifteenth century model for chains of dyadic exchanges, 266–267
 - patronage networks beyond politics, 264–266
 - project of workers party to eliminate patronage, 269–270
 - training in anthropology, 255–256
- Customers, 164
- Dasvandh*, 56–58, 66–67
 - combining Zakat and Dasvandh in single theoretical frame, 58–61
- Debt, 4, 90–91
- Demobilization, 219–220, 222
- Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (DEFRA), 21–22
- Development logic, 56
- Difference in economic anthropology, 166–168
- Digital
 - business, 136
 - connectedness, 141–142
 - mirror, 151
 - services, 142
 - strategies to employ, 150–152
- Digitalization of trade, 136
- Digitalizing local markets
 - Bernstorffstraßenfest and Flea Market, 146–147
- companies and business models, 145–149
- decrease in value, 154
- ecological footprint, 154–155
- ethnographic studies of second-hand markets, 138–140
- exploring improvement through digital, 143–145
- fashion content, 153
- Hanseatic Heels, 148–149
- market history from store to online shop, 140–145
- Musswessels, 147
- Pick’nWeight, 147–148
- Rudolf Beaufays, 146
- Schanzenflohmarkt, 146
- Schutz Und Schmuck, 149
- Secondella, 145–146
- secondhand markets, 152
- SecondHerzog and Cash4brands, 147
- sourcing and material quality, 153
- Vinokilo, 148
- waves and histories, 149–152
- Disarmament, Demobilization, and Reintegration (DDR), 219–220
- Distribution of Islamic fashion, 175
- Doing difference, 168
 - and Islamic fashion, 165–166
 - and market order performance, 181–182
- Dom Pedro (Prince of Portugal), 266
- Dominant concept of money, 77
- Dominated local politics, 259
- Donation, 57
- Dou ut des* (I give to receive something in exchange), 259
- Dyadic exchanges, 262

- fifteenth century model for chains of, 266–267
- Earmarking, 77
- EBay, 141–143
- Ecological footprint, 154–155
- Ecological reconnection, 13
- Economic anthropology, 218
 - difference in, 166–168
- Economic(s), 8
 - analysis, 218
 - assistance, 242–243
 - development, 205
 - growth, 118–119
 - inequality, 56
 - insecurity, 243–244
 - partnerships, 188
 - violence, 102–107
- Edgar Vasconcellos, 257–258
- Education, 129–131
- Egalitarianism, 189
- Ejército de Liberación Nacional* (ELN), 221
- Electoral politics (in Brazil), 254
- Embeddedness, 152–153
- Emotional accounting, 93
- Emotional problems of ex-combatants, 228–231
- Emotional work, 36
- Empowerment, 111, 129, 131, 198, 205
 - of “poor”, 188
 - social justice to, 196–199
- English classic style, 146
- Entrepreneurial practice, 165–166
- Entrepreneurialism, 188, 192–193
- Entrepreneurs, 165–166, 168, 181
- Entrepreneurship, 39
- Escola Superior de Guerra*, 259
- Esthetics, 170–180
- Ethnographic studies of secondhand markets, 138–140
- Ethnography of infrastructure, 6
- European Union (EU), 9
- Ex-combatants, 218
 - characteristics, 236–237
 - emotional problems and loneliness of, 228–231
 - reintegrating, 218
- Ex-Soviet countries, 37
- Explanatory framework, 8–9
- Facebook, 140
- Facetime, 142
- Fair prices, 188
- Fair trade, 188
 - corporate narratives of business partnerships and traceability, 199–203
 - discursively producing, 196–199
 - growing coffee and struggling to survive without state support in Southern Mexico, 203–206
 - methods, 194–196
 - narratives of Cooperativismo and divisions within producer organizations, 206–209
 - organizations, 189
 - poverty and international development, 191–194
 - radical roots, 190
 - scholarship, 190–191
 - social justice roots, 188–189
- Fair Trade USA (FTUSA), 188
- Fairtrade International, 188, 194–195, 197
- Fairtrade Labelling Organization, 188, 197–198
- FARC, 218
 - identity, 223–225
- Fashion, 141–142
 - markets, 166
- Fast fashion, 136–137
- Fee, 43–44
- Feminine, 224–225
- Feminization, 224–225
- Field, 60–61
- Finance. See also Community finance, 7
- Financial empowerment, 44
- Financial inclusion, 111

- Financialisation, 10, 110
- Financialized kye, 80
- Financializing Poverty*, 108
- First market, 140–141
- Flea markets, 150
- Flexible thematic analysis, 63
- Flower arrangement, 87
- Focus groups discussion (FGD), 102
- Folk, 266–267
- Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), 119
- Food availability, 118
- Food insecurity, 119
 - in New Zealand, 120–124
- Food rescue
 - in New Zealand, 120–124
 - programs, 119–120
- Food waste, 118
- Free Café, 127
- Free readers, 97–98
- Friend, 65
- Front-loading benefit, 12
- FTUSA, 188, 198
- Fuerza Alternativa Revolucionaria del Común, 219–220
- Funeral, 79–80

- Gap, 152
- Gender, 236–237
 - contract, 47–49
- Gendered care work, 47–48
- Gendered housing market, 80
- Generalized reciprocity, 59–60
- George Foster, 258–259
- Germany, 3–4
- Gestational labour, 49
- Gestational surrogacy, 34
- Gifts, 35, 37, 76
 - gift-giving instances, 89
 - money, 89
- Global fair trade agricultural markets, 188
- Global Peace Index, 220
- Globalization, 118–119
- God, 66–69

- Graduates of Hani High School in Seoul (1974), 81–83
- Green Revolution, 118
- Group lending, 111

- H&M, 152
- Habitus, 60–61
- Hanseatic Heels, 148–149
- Hanseatic Help, 148–149
- Hinduism, 56–57
- Homogenization, 77
- Human well-being, 124–131
 - material and social impacts of waste food on human health and well-being, 131–132
- Hwat'u*, 87–88

- Iconic model of secondhand online business, 151–152
- Imaginary, 13
- Income source, 86–88
- Industrialization, 118–119
- Industrialized nations, 119
- Informal conversational interviewing, 102
- Informal economy, 80, 101
- Informal economy, the, 242
- Informal interviewing, 102
- Informal markets in local governance, 62–63
- Infrastructural engineering projects, 6
- Infrastructures, 6–7
 - anthropological conceptualisations of, 8
 - ethnography of, 6
 - finance, 7–8, 10
- Innovation, 199
- Instagram, 155
- Institute of Economics and Peace, 222
- Institutional market reform, 188
- Instituto Mexicano del Café (INME-CAFE), 204
- Interdisciplinarity, 8–9
- Interdisciplinary encounters, 6–9
- Internal immigrants, 264

- Internally displaced person (IDP), 57–58
- International Coffee Agreement, 189
- International development, 191–194
- Interpersonal networks, 60–61
- Interpersonal ties, 66–69
- Investment gap, 18–19
- Investors, desires of, 18–20
- Islam, 56–57
- Islamic fashion, 169
- in Berlin, 168–169
 - difference in economic anthropology, 166–168
 - doing difference and Islamic fashion, 165–166
 - doing difference and market order performance, 181–182
 - materializations of difference, 170–180
 - navigating difference, 168–170
 - oriental fashion, 169–170
 - practice theoretical approach
 - Toberlin's market for islamic fashion, 168
- Kai Kitchen Initiative, 122
- Kaibosh food rescue case study, 120–124
- Kardecism, 265
- Karl Polanyi, 258–259
- Keurig Dr Pepper, 199–200
- Khyber Pakhtunkhwa (KP), 56
- Kibosh*, 121
- Kleidermarkt*, 147–148
- Komulelanta*, 97–98, 102
- Korea, ceremonial exchanges in, 79–81
- Kye*, 78
- ceremonial exchanges in, 79–81
- Latafundias*, 257
- Liberation theology, 190
- Libre* coffee producers, 195–196
- Lift Above Poverty Organization (LAPO), 100
- Literary critics, 254–255
- Loan drive, 108–109
- Loan officers, 108
- Loan recovery, 108
- Loan repayment, 98–99, 108
- Local associations, 61–62
- Location, 178–179
- London's 'super sewer'
 - financing story, 18–24
 - interdisciplinary encounters, 6–9
 - Thames Tideway Tunnel, 9–18
- Loneliness of ex-combatants, 228–231
- Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva, 269
- Margaret Mead, 256
- Market actors, 166
- Market anthropology, 166
- Market growth, social justice to, 196–199
- Market history from store to online shop, 140–145
- Market order performance, doing difference and, 181–182
- Market segments, 142
- Market traders, 63
- Market-based solutions, 188
- Marketplaces, 98–99
- Markets (performance of), 3–4
- Masculine, 224–225
- Material quality, 153
- Materializations of difference, 170–180
- Medieval Portuguese system of stratification, 266–267
- Membership, 83–84
- Merchandise knowledge, 141–142
- Mexico, 37
- Microcredit mobilization, 107–110
- Microcredit schemes of tension, 98–99
 - rise of community finance in Nigeria, 99–100
 - Saturday Punch*, 97–98
 - social-emotional vulnerability
 - resulting from economic violence, 102–107
 - study context and methods of data production, 101–102
 - untangling complexity of micro-credit mobilization, 107–110

- Microfinance, 98–100
- Microfinance banks (MFBs), 99
- Microfinance institutions (MFIs), 98
- Microlending, 109
- “Middle-rung” theory, 80
- Migrant, 82
- Modernization, 260
- Moji, 103–104
- Money, 2–3, 166–167
- Money for belongingness
 - 1974 Graduates of Hani High School in Seoul, 81–83
 - account book and communal fund management, 83–91
 - ceremonial exchanges in Korea and Kye, 79–81
 - communal fund expenditures, 88–91
 - gathering occasions and activity of members, 84–86
 - money and maintaining social network, 76–79
 - source of income, 86–88
 - withdrawal from association, 91–92
- Moral economy of charity, 56–57
- Morality, 92
- Motherhood, 47, 49
- Museu Nacional* (National Museum), 267
- Nancy Scheper-Hughes, 110–111, 263–264
- Narrative, 8
- National economy, 7
- National Liberation Army. See Ejército de Liberación Nacional (ELN)
- National Unit of Protection. See Unidad Nacional de Protección (UNP)
- Neoliberal global market, 108
- Network
 - of dyadic exchanges, 254
 - school, alumni, social, 76
- New Zealand, 3–4
- New Zealand Food Act, 121
- Nigeria, community finance in, 99
- Non-governmental organizations (NGOs), 56, 118–119, 199
- Nosotros*, 224
- Nutritional value, waste food with, 122–124
- Observation methods, 102
- Oil boom (1970), 98
- Ontological insecurity, 229–230
- Ontological vulnerability, 99
- Oriental fashion, 169–170
- Owo komulelanta, 102, 104
- Pakistan, 61
 - reciprocity; charity; god, 56
 - voluntary associations in, 62
- Parry and Bloch’s approach, 77
- Participant observation methods, 102
- Partido dos Trabalhadores* (PT), 254, 269
- Partnership, 188
 - model, 10
- Patron-client exchanges, 254
- Patronage networks beyond politics, 264–266
- Peacebuilding
 - cost-effectiveness of, 222
 - programs, 218
- Pedlars, 139–140
- Pension funds, 19
- Perpetrators, 224
- Peshawari Singh Saiva Society (PSSS), 57–58, 62–63, 66–67
- Philanthropy, 56–57
- Pick’nWeight, 147–148
- Political corruption, 254
- Political economists, 7
- Political economy, 7–8
- “Poor” empowerment, 188
- Pop-up sales, 148
- Popular Catholicism, 266–267
- Port of London Authority (PLA), 13
- Post-soviet gender contract, 47–49

- Posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 224
 Poverty, 98, 191, 194
 alleviation, 205
 Price, 37, 141–142, 180
 Private Finance Initiative (PFI), 10, 18–19
 Private track, 42
 Privatisation, 26
 Product certification, 188
Programa de Reincorporaci'ón a la Vida Civil (PRVC), 220
 Project, 2, 6
 PTSD Symptom Scale (PSS-I), 228
 Public good, 9
 new conception of, 24–26
 Public–private partnership (PPP), 100
Pujo tradition, 81
 Pure gift, 56

 Qualitative interviews, 35
 Qualitative quantity of money, 77–78

 Recidivism
 factors affecting recidivism, 232–233
 and other success metrics, 233–235 as success metric, 231–232
 Recipients, 66–69
 charities, 122
 Reciprocity, 56
 chain of, 63–66
 model, 59–60
 Regulated Asset Base (RAB), 18–20
 Reinforcement, 221, 239–240
 Reintegration, 218, 221, 239–240
 case of ARN, 233–235
 emotional problems and loneliness of ex-combatants, 228–231
 factors affecting recidivism, 232–233
 program, 222, 226, 235
 recidivism as success metric, 231–232 strategy, 241–242
 total costs, 226–228
 Religions, 56–57

 Religious charities, triadic gift models for, 59–61
 Religious charity, 56
 Repro-regional moral frameworks, 36–37
 Reproductive labour, 36
 Research in Economic Anthropology (REA), 1
 Retro, 138
 Reunion, 79
Rezadores, 268–269
 Ritual celebrations, 208–209
 River Thames, 9–10
Robusta coffee processing plant, 206
 Rotating credit association, 78
 Rural sociology, 257
 Russia, waged labour in, 37
 Russian assisted reproduction technologies industry, 37–38
 Russian surrogacy, 38
 Russian-assisted reproduction technologies policy, 34

 Sacralisation, 35
 Safety, 237–239
Sangbusangjo, 79–80
Sanghobujo, 79–80
 Scale of infrastructure, 20–22
 Schanzenflohmarkt, 146
 School alumni association
 Schutz Und Schmuck, 149
 Science, 254–255
 science-fictional film, 11
 Secondella, 137–138, 140, 145–146
 Secondhand markets, 152
 clothing market, 136
 ethnographic studies of, 138–140
 Secondhand shop, 137–138
 SecondHerzog and Cash4brands, 147
 Secret-citizen narrative, 231
 Secretariat of Agriculture and Rural Development (SAGARPA), 204–205
 Secular philanthropy, 56–57
 Security, 244
 Seedvest, Crest, 100

- Self-reliance Economic Advancement Programme (SEAP), 100
- Selling, 3–4
- Sequential data generation method, 63
- Shaming practices, 108–109
- Shop design, 172
- Shop windows, 173
- Sikh community, 62–63
- Sikhism, 56–57
- Simply komu, 102
- Single motherhood, 48
- Singularization, 167
- Situational vulnerability, 99
- Skill building, 129–131
- Skype, 142
- Small and medium enterprises (SMEs), 99–100
- Small-scale businesses, 98
- Sociability, 92
 - in afterlife of rescued food, 126–129
- Social class, 262
- Social enterprise, 148
- Social entrepreneurship model, 199
- Social impacts of waste food on human health and well-being, 131–132
- Social justice, 190
 - to market growth and empowerment, 196–199
- Social life of food, 124–131
- Social Life of Things, 126
- Social Life of Water, 126
- Social meanings of money, 77–78
- Social network, 79
 - money and maintaining, 76–79
- Social relationship, 2–3
- Social welfare associations (SWAs), 56–57, 60, 66, 69
- Social welfare programmes, 62
- Social welfare provision, 56–57
 - chain of reciprocity, 63–66
 - combining Zakat and Dasvandh in single theoretical frame, 58–61
 - data generation and analysis, 63
 - empirical settings, 61–63
 - findings, 63–70
 - implications for local governance, 69–70
 - Pakistan, 61
 - social welfare associations, inter-personal ties, god and recipients, 66–69
 - theoretical expansion of triadic gift models for religious charities, 59–61
- Social-emotional vulnerability, 99
 - resulting from economic violence, 102–107
- Socioeconomic hierarchy, 258
- SOEX textile recycling, 147–148
- Solidarity, 42–43
- Sourcing, 153
- South Korea, 79
- Southeastern Minas Gerais State, fieldwork in, 256–262
- Special Purpose Vehicle (SPV), 18, 22–23
- Spiritual equality, 56
- Stores, 171–174
- Style, 141–142
- Substantivist approach, 2
- Surrogacy. See also Commercial surrogacy, 35–36
 - altruism in, 45–47
 - money, 43–44
 - in motherland, 47–49
- Surrogates' view of commercial surrogacy, 39–41
- Sustainable urban Drainage Systems (SuDS), 21
- Sympathetic worker, 45–47
- Thames Blue Green Economy Group (TBGE), 21–22
- Thames Skills Academy (TSA), 14
- Thames Tideway Tunnel, 2, 9, 18
 - bazalgette, 14–15
 - benefits, 22–24
 - consensus and charisma, 11–13
 - desires of investors, 18–20

- financing story, 18–24
- introducing, 9–10
- new conception of public good, 24–26
- scale, 20–22
- spectacle, 16–18
- vision and rhetoric, 13–14
- as vision and spectacle, 10–11
- ThredUp, 136–138
- Thrift, 138–139
- Tierra Grata*, 223
- Toberlin's market for islamic fashion, 168
- Tongch'ang* in Korean, 82
- Top-down approaches, 220
- Traceability, 199–203
- Trade. See also Fair trade, 167
- Traditional kye, 80
- Training in anthropology, 255–256
- Triadic gift models for religious charities, 59–61
- Triadic model, 56
- Turkish-Arab dualism, 169–170, 178–179
- UCO, 208
- UN Human Development Index (HDI), 120–121
- Underdevelopment, 254
- Unemployment, 98
- Unidad Nacional de Protección* (UNP), 239
- Uniform Muslim consumer segment, 167–168
- Union of Indigenous Communities of Region of Isthmus (UCIRI), 190
- United Nations (UN), 119
- Universality approach, 99
- UPCOBJ, 208
- Urban educated intellectuals, Brazilian anthropologists as, 267–269
- Urban infrastructure, 22
- Urban studies, 263
- Urbanization, 118–119
- US-American online resale enterprise, 136
- Valuation, 137–138
- Value for money (VFM), 19
- Value of 'waste' food, 119–120
- Viçosa, 256–257
- Victims, 224
- Victor Nunes Leal, 259
- Victorian scale, 21–22
- Vinokilo, 148
- Vintage Kilo Store, 147–148
- Violence, 218
- Viviana Zelizer, 35
- Voluntary associations, 61–62
- Voluntary donation, 87
- Vulnerability, 99
- Wage labour, 36–37
 - in Russia, 37
- Waste food
 - impacts on human health and well-being, 131–132
 - with nutritional value, 122–124
- Waves and histories, 149–152
- Wedding, 79–80
- WELLfed, 124, 129
- Wellington City Mission (WCM), 122
- WhatsApp, 142
- Withdrawal from association, 91–92
- Women borrowers, 104
- Women entrepreneurs, 108
- Workers party project to eliminate patronage, 269–270
- World War II (WWII), 118
- Zakat*, 56–58, 66–67
 - combining Zakat and Dasvandh in single theoretical frame, 58–61
- Zara, 152
- Zero Fome (Zero Hunger), 269
- Zoroastrianism, 56–57