

INDEX

- Adaptability, 114
 - communication from CIC, 114–115
 - innovation, opportunity, and change, 114
 - local and regional partnerships and advocacy, 115
- Adaptation strategies, 8
- Advocacy, 115
- Aesthetics, 32
 - aesthetic perspectives to aesthetic entrepreneurship, 33–37
 - aesthetic-making process, 41
 - in CAE, 33
 - as connection, 34–36
 - as criteria for judgements, 36–37
 - innovations, 39–40
 - judgements, 37
 - knowledge, 32
 - as sensible knowing, 33
 - as source of innovation for CAE, 37–40
 - value-based system, 34
- Africa's creative economy, 166
- Agency, 22
 - in CCI, 24–25
 - impact of environment on entrepreneurship, 23–24
- Altruistic creative identity, 181, 187–188, 190
- Archetypical entrepreneurs, 18
- Architects, 183
- Art entrepreneurship, 65
- Artistic innovations, 39–40
- Artistic sector, 140
- Artists work and entrepreneurial activity, effect of practices on, 140
- Arts entrepreneurship, 36
- Autoethnography, 50
- Baltic Creative Community Interest Company (Baltic Creative CIC), 106–107, 110, 113
 - adaptability, 114
 - data collection and analysis, 110
 - findings, 110–112
 - literature /theoretical framing, 107–109
 - liverpool context, 106–107
 - methods, 109
 - resilience, 112–114
- Baltic Triangle, 107
- Black, Asian, and Minority Ethnic (BAME), 152
- Black Lives Matter movement, 6
- Bourdieu's approach, 108
- Bourdieu's theory of capitals, 130
- Bourdieuian theory, 129
- Bricolage theory, 27
- British Fashion Council (BFC), 154, 156
- British fashion industry, 158
- Business Model Canvas, The, 79
- Business-to-business (b2b), 52
- Business-to-consumer (b2c), 52
- Business(es), 60
 - business-led initiatives, 152
 - models, 78–79, 84
 - strategies, 2
- Cameroon
 - creating enabling environment for creative entrepreneurs, 172
 - cultural/creative industries as driver of development, 166–167
 - financial constraints in creative process, 170–171
 - findings, 170
 - implications, 173
 - inclusive, 166

- music as means of employment, 173
- piracy, 171–172
- related literature review, 167–168
- research approach, 169–170
- understanding folk and popular music, 168–169
- Cameroon International Music Festival (CIMFEST), 174
- Cameroonian artists, 172
- Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), 76
- Central board of film certification (CBFC), 122
- Chinmay Organisation for Rural Development (CORD), 93, 96–97, 100
 - Annual Report, 99–100
 - Pandemic Programme Interventions, 101
- Chinmaya Rural Primary Health Care and Training Centre (CRPHC & TC), 97
- Cluster theories, 23
- Co-creation of aesthetic value, 33, 35
- Collaboration between musicians and music ecosystem, promoting new forms of, 146
- Communication
 - from CIC, 114–115
 - tools, 145
- Communitarians, 22, 84
- Community artists, 5, 12
- Community development, 5
- Community engagement and contribution, 5
- Community of practice, 70
- Community-based inclusion and rehabilitation programme, 100
- Community-Based Livelihood-Farm and Allied Sector (CBL-FAS), 100
- Concentric Circles model for CCIs, 10
- Conceptualisation, 53
- Continuous thinking process, 94
- Conversion process, 109
- Cooperation, 84–85
- Core-periphery spill-over model, 25
- COVID–19, 101
 - business models, 78–79, 84
 - challenges faced by creative entrepreneurs during outbreak of, 98–99
 - COVID-19-induced lockdown periods, 6
 - creative entrepreneurship and, 95–96
 - crisis, 156
 - customer needs and product development, 82–83
 - disease, 98
 - entrepreneurial mindsets, 81–82
 - findings, 80–81
 - innovative and hybrid business models, 82
 - literature review, 77
 - marketing approaches, 79–80, 84–85
 - mask-makers as emerging creative entrepreneurs during, 77
 - methods, 80
 - motivations and mindsets, 77–78, 83–84
 - pandemic, 76–77, 83, 113, 170
- Craft entrepreneurship, 12
- Creation, 48–49
- Creative activities practiced by SHGs, 99
 - CBL-FAS, 100
 - Chinmaya Shanta, 100–101
 - community-based inclusion and rehabilitation programme, 100
 - E-Sanjeevani App, 99
 - seven Js, 101
 - Swadhyaya classrooms, 100
 - vegetable and dairy production, 100

- Creative and cultural entrepreneurship, 3–4
- Creative and cultural industry (CCI), 2, 25
 - agency and structure in, 24–25
 - agenda for entrepreneurship research in, 26–27
 - community development and placemaking, 5–6
 - contributions of CCI entrepreneurship, 4
 - economic and sustainable development contributions, 4–5
 - emerging trends for and with CCI entrepreneurship, 6–7
 - entrepreneurs, 62, 65, 68
 - nature and nurture in, 22
 - societal contributions, 5
 - subsectors within, 12
- Creative class, 154
- Creative content producers, entrepreneurs as, 95
- Creative economy, 3–4, 154, 173
- Creative entrepreneurial practices, 11
- Creative entrepreneurs, 46, 48, 53–54, 77–78, 80, 94
 - challenges faced by creative entrepreneurs during outbreak of COVID-19, 98–99
 - creating enabling environment for, 172
 - indite, 50
 - inditing basics, 50–51
 - inditing multiplication, 51
 - inditing variation, 52–53
- Creative entrepreneurship, 72, 93–96, 166–168 (see also Fashion entrepreneurship)
 - activities, 97–98, 102
 - continuous thinking process, 94
 - and COVID-19, 95–96
 - discourses of, 153–154
 - entrepreneur as main doer, 94
 - entrepreneurs as creative content producers, 95
 - entrepreneurs as creative experience provider, 95
 - entrepreneurs as creative original producers, 95
 - entrepreneurs as creative service provider, 95
 - features of, 94
 - investor of talent, 94
 - significance of, 94–95
 - sustainability, 94
 - types of creative entrepreneurship, 95
- Creative experience provider, entrepreneurs as, 95
- Creative identity, 180, 185–186
 - altruistic creative identity, 188
 - combined creative and entrepreneurial identities typology, 187
 - contribution, 189–190
 - in creative industries, 181–182
 - data analysis, 184–185
 - data collection methods, 183–184
 - devoted creative identity, 188
 - embedded creative identity, 188–189
 - factors shaping, 185
 - findings, 185
 - formation of, 182
 - indisputable creative identity, 188
 - literature review, 181
 - methods, 183
 - micro-identities, 181
 - multidimensionality of and interplay between identities, 182–183
 - relationship between creative and entrepreneurial identities, 186–187
 - respondents, 183
- Creative industry entrepreneurship
 - contributions of CCI entrepreneurship, 4–6

- cultural industries, creative
 - economy, creative and cultural entrepreneurship, 3–4
- emerging trends for and with CCI entrepreneurship, 6–7
- insights into entrepreneurship
 - stories in volume, 7–10
- methodological approaches, 11
- impact of recent significant
 - external economic events, 12
- subsectors within CCI and entrepreneurship, 12
- theoretical framing and approaches, 10–11
- way forward, 10
- Creative industry/industries, 3, 46, 48, 92, 102, 166
 - creative and entrepreneurial identities in, 181–182
 - as driver of development, 166–167
 - entrepreneurs, 153
 - research, 11
- Creative labour, 154
 - fashion, and challenges, 154
 - governmentality and enterprise culture, 155–156
- Creative leadership in SHGs under CORD, 97–98
- Creative original producers,
 - entrepreneurs as, 95
- Creative practitioners identity, 182
- Creative process, financial constraints
 - in, 170–171
- Creative service provider,
 - entrepreneurs as, 95
- Creativisation of economy, 3
- Creativity, 18, 153, 166, 174
- Cultural and arts entrepreneurship (CAE), 32–33
 - aesthetics in, 33–37
 - innovations, 37–40
 - research, 33
- Cultural and creative industries, 108
- Cultural assets, 136
- Cultural capital, 109, 112
- Cultural entrepreneurs, 19, 173
- Cultural entrepreneurship, 36, 65, 166
- Cultural industries, 3–4, 152
 - as driver of development, 166–167
- Cultural innovations, 38, 40
- Cultural value, 4
- Culturalisation of economy, 3
- Customer needs and product
 - development, 82–83
- Cyclical process, 110
- Data analysis, 184–185
- Data collection methods, 183–184
- Dénouement, 47
- Department for Culture, Media and Sport Creative Task Force (DCMS), 136
- Design agency, 25
- Devoted creative identity, 181, 187–188, 190
- Digital creative agency, 68
- Digital technologies, 156
- Digitisation, 100
- Disadvantaged communities, 152, 155
- Discourse, 153
- Diversity, 155
- Douglas's model, 61
- E-Sanjeevani App, 99
- Economic capital, 108, 114, 131
- Ecosystems, 108–110, 114, 116
- Effectuation theory, 27
- Embedded creative identity, 181, 187–190
- Enterprise, 153–154
- Enterprise culture, 153, 155–156
- Entrepreneurial activity, effect of
 - practices on artists' work and, 140
- Entrepreneurial approach, 83
- Entrepreneurial brainchildren
 - creative entrepreneurs indite, 50–53

- distinguishing inditaton from concepts, 48–50
- establishing or rejecting concept of inditaton, 53–55
- Entrepreneurial capitals, 107–108
- Entrepreneurial ecosystem (EE), 23
- Entrepreneurial Event Model (EEM), 60–61
- Entrepreneurial identity, 180, 186
 - altruistic creative identity, 188
 - combined creative and entrepreneurial identities typology, 187
 - contribution, 189–190
 - in creative industries, 181–182
 - data analysis, 184–185
 - data collection methods, 183–184
 - devoted creative identity, 188
 - embedded creative identity, 188–189
 - factors shaping, 185
 - findings, 185
 - indisputable creative identity, 188
 - literature review, 181
 - methods, 183
 - micro-identities, 181
 - multidimensionality of and interplay between identities, 182–183
 - relationship between creative and entrepreneurial identities, 186–187
 - respondents, 183
- Entrepreneurial intention
 - existing models of entrepreneurial intention, 60–62
 - findings, 65
 - narrative inquiry, 62–65
 - personal growth, 65–67
 - progression from freelancing, 67–68
 - project realisation, 68–70
- Entrepreneurial mindsets, 81–82
- Entrepreneurial movie producers, 123
- Entrepreneurial orientation, 27
- Entrepreneurial process, 20, 152
- Entrepreneurial concept, 10, 137
- Entrepreneurs, 22–23, 61, 63, 79, 92, 109, 152, 159, 180, 187
 - as creative content producers, 95
 - as creative experience provider, 95
 - as creative original producers, 95
 - as creative service provider, 95
 - opportunity seekers, 19
 - radical innovators, 18–19
 - self-employed as founders of new businesses, 19–20
 - types of, 18
- Entrepreneurship, 19, 23, 65, 70, 72 (see also Creative entrepreneurship)
 - impact of environment on, 23–24
 - in Indian movie industry, 122–123
 - process, 24
 - subsectors within, 12
- Entrepreneurship research, 166
 - action and antecedents, 20
 - agency, structure, 22–25
 - agenda for entrepreneurship research in CCI, 26–27
 - attitudes, beliefs, and self-efficacy, 21
 - motivation and passion, 20–21
 - nature, nurture, 20
 - nature and nurture in CCI, 22
 - promising approaches, 25–26
 - social identity, 21–22
 - three types of entrepreneurs, 18–20
- Entrepreneurship-as-practice (EAP), 137
 - studying artistic field through lens of, 137–138
- Environment on entrepreneurship
 - impact of, 23
 - EE, 23
 - institutional theory, 24
- Ethnic minorities, 158
 - fashion entrepreneurs, 155
- Ethnomethodological approaches, 140

- Etsy (e-commerce platform), 76, 82, 85
- Europe, UK ethnic minority fashion entrepreneurs, 7
- European Creative Hubs Network (ECHN), 115
- European Regional Development Fund (ERDF), 106
- Evolutive professionalisation approach, 143
- Facebook, 82
- Family ties, 125–127
 - and networking, 131
 - and networks, 123–124
- Fashion designers, 154
- Fashion entrepreneurs, 157
- Fashion entrepreneurship, 152
 - creative labour, fashion, and challenges, 154–156
 - discourses of fashion and creative entrepreneurship, 153–154
 - UK fashion sector, 156–159
- Fashion Fund, 158
- Fashion industry, 156
- Fatma films, 122
- Female entrepreneurship, 123–124
- Financial constraints in creative process, 170
 - folk artist, 170–171
 - popular artist, 170–171
- Financial crises, 77
- Fluid process, 60
- Folk artists, 170–171
- Folk music
 - major challenge to, 171–172
 - understanding, 168–169
- Foucault's analysis, 155
- France
 - creative sector in, 136
 - paradox of intermittence regime in, 141–142
- Freelancing, progression from, 67–68
- French context, 144
- Global coronavirus pandemic, 106–107
- Governmentality, 155–156
- Gurudeva Himalaya Farmer Producer Company, 100
- Himachal Pradesh State Livelihood Mission (HPSRLM), 96
- Himachal Pradesh's state government, 96
- Hodgepodge of entrepreneurship, 18
- Hubs, 107
 - of creative entrepreneurs, 106
- Hybrid business models, 82
- Hybridisation, 84
- Ideation, 49
- India, 92, 96
- Indian movie business, 127
- Indian movie industry, 7, 124
 - entrepreneurship in, 122–123
 - family ties, 125–127
 - family ties and networks, 123–124
 - female entrepreneurship, 123
 - findings, 125
 - implications and further research, 130–131
 - innovation, risk-taking, and pro-activeness, 125
 - literature/theoretical framing, 122
 - methodology, 124–125
 - networks, 127
 - social capital, 124
- Indian movie producers, 123
- Indisputable creative identity, 181, 187–188, 190
- Inditation, 46, 49
 - creative entrepreneurs indite, 50–53
 - distinguishing inditation from concepts, 48–50
 - establishing or rejecting concept of inditation, 53–55
 - process, 51, 54–55
- Indite, 46
- Inditers, 54
- Inditing prototypes, 51

- Inditing variation, 52–53
- Innovations, 32–33, 37, 123, 125
 - aesthetics as source of innovation for CAE, 37
- Innovative business models, 82
- Inspiration, 49
- Institutional entrepreneurship, 24
- Institutional Review Board, 80
- Institutional theory, 24
- Integration, 25
- Intellectual property (IP), 69
- Interdisciplinary team, 80
- Intermittence regime in France, paradox of, 141–142
- International Fund for Cultural Diversity (IFCD), 167
- Intuition, 49
- Invention, 49
- Investor of talent, 94
- Jal, Jungle, Jameen, Jan, Janwar, Jivika, Jalvayu (seven Js), 101
- Judgements, aesthetics as criteria for, 36–37
- Lithography, 51
- Liverpool context, 106–107
- Local ecosystem, influence and place of, 145–146
- Low-cost Tactics, 84–85
- Marginalisation in CCI
 - analysis and findings, 140
 - approach, design and positionality, 138–139
 - daily and actual musician's practices, 143
 - data analysis, 140
 - data collection, 139
 - diverse ways of working and being enterprising, 143–144
 - educating emerging musicians, 145
 - implications, 144
 - influence and place of local ecosystem, 145–146
 - influence of public and state authorities, 140–141
 - music incubation platform, 140
 - new tools and practices, 144
 - paradox of intermittence regime in France, 141–142
 - practices, praxis and practitioners to identify work, 138
 - effect of practices on artists' work and entrepreneurial activity, 140
 - presentation of Trempo, 139
 - project economy, intermittent work, 141
 - promoting new forms of collaboration between musicians and music ecosystem, 146
 - research setting and methodological choices, 138
 - studying artistic field through lens of EAP, 137–138
 - theoretical background, 137
- Marketing, 84–85
 - approaches, 79
- Mask-makers marketing approaches, 84
- Mask-making, 77, 102
 - business, 84
 - materials, 76
 - ventures, 82
- Micro-identities, 181
- Microfinance programme, 99
- Minority businesses, 159
- Models of entrepreneurial intention, 60–62
- Motivation, 20–21
- Multi-activity, 143
- Music, 168
 - as means of employment, 173
 - promoting new forms of collaboration between musicians and music ecosystem, 146
 - value chain, 146

- Music Campus, The, 139
- Music Incubation Platform, The, 139–140
- Musicians, 173
 - activities, 141, 143
 - practices and praxis–stakeholder support for, 140–144
 - promoting new forms of collaboration between music ecosystem and, 146
- Narrative inquiry, 62–65
- Narrative research, 62–63
- Nascent entrepreneurs, 77, 86
- National Endowment for Science, Technology and Arts (NESTA), 157
- National Innovation Centre for Rural Enterprise (NICRE), 6
- Neo-liberal governments, 156
- Neo-liberal model, 153
 - of entrepreneurial self, 154
- Network sociality, 158
- Networks, 127
- Networks Online, 114–115
- Non-conformity, 39
- Non-profit entrepreneurship, 65
- Non-traditional innovations, 33
- Online COVID guidance, 112
- Online network events, 115
- Online workshops, 113
- Organisational aesthetics, 34
 - theory, 7, 37
- Organisational ethnographic approach, 9, 106, 109
- Paradoxes, 25–26
 - of intermittence regime in France, 141–142
 - theory, 25
- People with Disabilities (PWD), 100
- Philosophy of Composition, 47
- Photographers, 183
- Piracy, 171–172
 - folk artist, 171
 - popular artist, 171
- Place making, 5
- Poe's method, 54
- Political activism, 84
- Popular artist, 170–172
- Popular music
 - major challenge to, 171–172
 - understanding, 168–169
- Power dynamics, 152
- Powerful Advocacy, 114–115
- Practice theory, 26
- Practices, 25–26
- Practices–stakeholder support for musicians, 140–144
- Praxis–Stakeholder support for musicians, 140–144
- Pre-COVID-19, 4
- Pro-activeness, 125
- Problems of creative industry, 175
- Professional identity, 181
- Professionalisation in CCI
 - analysis and findings, 140
 - approach, design and positionality, 138–139
 - daily and actual musician's practices, 143
 - data analysis, 140
 - data collection, 139
 - diverse ways of working and being enterprising, 143–144
 - educating emerging musicians, 145
 - implications, 144
 - influence and place of local ecosystem, 145–146
 - influence of public and state authorities, 140–141
 - music incubation platform, 140
 - new tools and practices, 144
 - paradox of intermittence regime in France, 141–142
 - practices, praxis and practitioners to identify work, 138

- effect of practices on artists' work and entrepreneurial activity, 140
- presentation of Trempo, 139
- project economy, intermittent work, 141
- promoting new forms of collaboration between musicians and music ecosystem, 146
- research setting and methodological choices, 138
- studying artistic field through lens of EAP, 137–138
- theoretical background, 137
- Progression from freelancing, 67–68
- Project economy, 141
- Project realisation, 68–70
- Prospects of creative industry, 175
- Public authorities, influence of, 140–141
- Pull factors, 186
- Push factors, 186

- Qualitative approach, 181
- Qualitative research, 183
- Qualitative semi-structured interviews, 185

- Radical innovators, 18
- Reciprocal agency-structure relationship, 24
- Regional innovation systems arguments, 23
- Regular tenant surveys, 113
- Resilience, 112
 - government financial support, internal cash flow, and revenue generation, 113
 - operational compliance and guidance, 112
 - understanding tenant behaviour, 112–113
- Risk-taking, 125
- Rose's process, 70

- Rural businesses, 7
- Rural creative entrepreneurship, 6
- Rural creative industries, 93
- Rural economy, 92

- Schumpeterian entrepreneurs, 18, 27
- Self Determination Theory, 22
- Self-employed as founders of new businesses, 19–20
- Self-Employed Income Support Scheme (SEISS), 107
- Self-employment, 4
- Self-identity, 187
- Self-reliance, 153
- Self-efficacy, 21
- Self-help group (SHG), 92
 - challenges faced by creative entrepreneurs during outbreak of COVID-19, 98–99
 - CORD pandemic programme interventions, 101
 - creative activities practiced by SHGs, 99–101
 - creative entrepreneurship, 93–95
 - creative entrepreneurship and COVID-19, 95–96
 - creative leadership in SHGs under CORD, 97–98
 - methodology, 96
 - results, 97
 - technological change and dealing mechanism, 101–102
- Sensible knowing, 33
 - aesthetics as, 33
- Serigraphy, 51
- Shapero and Sokol's model, 61
- Soap manufacturing, 102
- Social awareness programmes, 102
- Social capital, 109, 124, 129
- Social enterprise models, 82
- Social entrepreneurs, 78
- Social entrepreneurship, 65, 83, 86
- Social identity, 21–22, 180, 189
 - theory, 21

- Social media, 156
 - algorithms, 159
- Social mobility, 153
- Social phenomena, 26
- Social reality, 183
- Socio-cultural elements, 159
- Socio-demographic identities, 155
- Sociological aesthetic theory, 37
- State authorities, influence of,
 - 140–141
- Strategic decisions, 115
- Structure, 22
 - in CCI, 24–25
 - impact of environment on
 - entrepreneurship, 23–24
- Sub-Saharan Africa, 166
- Sustainability, 94
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 166
- Swadhyaya classrooms, 100
- Symbolic capital, 109
- Technology, 92
- Thematic analysis process, 184
- Theory of economic development, 18
- Theory of entrepreneurship, 18
- Theory of Planned Behaviour (TPB),
 - 21–22, 60–61
- Theory of Reasoned Action (TRA),
 - 21
- Trempo, presentation of, 139
- UK, 4
 - creative industries, 152, 183
 - Creative Radar Survey, 11
 - disadvantaged communities,
 - networks, and role models,
 - 158–159
 - fashion entrepreneurs, 9
 - fashion sector, 156
 - Government, 115
 - support for young designers,
 - 157–158
 - UK-based Centre for Cultural
 - Value, 6
- UNESCO, 3
- United Nations Conference on
 - Trade and Development (UNCTAD), 166
- United Nations Educational Scientific
 - and Cultural Organization,
 - 167
- United Nations General Assembly
 - (UN General Assembly), 5
- Value creation process, 38
- Virtual resources, 124
- White collar jobs, 173
- Women, 92, 158
 - entrepreneurs, 86
- Young designers, support for, 157–158