Emerald has actively sought and utilized independent quality reviews of potential cataloguing vendors' records in order to select the vendor with the best quality of cataloguing, for the explicit purpose of offering records that will provide the most accurate, consistent, and thorough access to customers' Emerald eBook Collections.

"The quality of MARC records from vendors is sometimes overlooked when distributing records en masse, yet it is the most important thing to know, and for customers to demand. I'm very happy that your company recognizes this, and I salute you!"
