Working with authors and editors

The strength of Emerald's business and management journal collections lie in the depth of our relationships with authors.

We work with authors at every stage; from calls for papers, workshops and guidance on how to get published, peer networks to refine papers prior to submission and the online submission process. Emerald also acts, with the European Foundation for Management Development, as a catalyst to world-leading doctoral research in business and management through our Literati awards.

Emerald publishes in partnership with some of the world's leading business associations including: the Global Foundation for Management, Association to Advance Collegiate Business Schools and the International Federation of Library Associations.

Editorial integrity and independence are guaranteed. A subscriber to the Committee of Publishing Ethics, we adhere to the highest publishing standards. All Emerald articles are peer-reviewed, and 95 per cent double blind peer-reviewed. Uniquely, we do not permit advertising.
