

Business Ethics and Law

A collection addressing issues relevant to the recent global crisis in business and finance; including corporate governance, corporate social responsibility and sustainable leadership.

Journal

ISSN: 1472-0701 Volume: 12 Print Issues: 5 Internet Issues: 5 www.emeraldinsight.com/cg.htm

Corporate Governance

The international journal of business in society

Corporate Governance: The international journal of business in society (CG) aims to lead the international debate on board performance, corporate responsibility and CEO effectiveness. By cultivating and sharing knowledge and ideas, CG aims to assist businesses in enhancing their corporate governance practice.

Coverage includes:

Effective boardroom performance; control and regulation; executive leadership; the growing importance of governance in the wake of ever-greater corporate scandals; and the role of business in society.

Benefits and features

- CG has a strong commitment to publishing the latest research from around the globe.
- CG is the only journal in its field which aims to lead the debate on board effectiveness and CSR for both academics and professionals alike.

Editors

Professor Nada K. Kakabadse
Northampton Business School,
UK

Professor Andrew Kakabadse
Cranfield School of Management, UK

Journal

ISSN: 1754-243X Volume: 54 Print Issues: 6 Internet Issues: 6 www.emeraldinsight.com/ijlma.htm

International Journal of Law and Management

The International Journal of Law and Management (IJLMA) remains committed to publishing the latest research on policy, practice and theoretical perspectives and their impact on the development and leadership of organizations. The journal seeks to provide a bridge between academia and practice.

Coverage includes:

Employment and industrial law; corporate governance and social responsibility; intellectual property; corporate law and finance; and insolvency; and commercial law and consumer protection.

Benefits and features

- IJLMA is a multi-disciplinary journal which provides a platform to stimulate scholarly debate in the development of law and practice.
- IJLMA is an influential and authoritative refereed journal which aims to bridge the gap between academia and practice.

Editors

Professor Chris Gale
Bradford University School of
Management, UK

Professor Clive Smallman
Lincoln University, New Zealand

Journal

ISSN: 2041-2568 Volume: 3 Print Issues: 2 Internet Issues: 2 www.emeraldinsight.com/jgr.htm

Journal of
Global Responsibility

Journal of Global Responsibility (JGR) publishes scholarly articles that build the kind of understanding that will lead organizations towards the adoption of a longer-term focus and a more inclusive set of responsibilities.

Coverage includes:

Ethics; new mental models; governance; strategy; public policy; corporate social responsibility; human rights; workplace spirituality; employee/community engagement; transparency; and resource management.

Benefits and features

- JGR is located within a new and rapidly expanding area of scholarly activity.
- The content is of immediate interest to academics around the world, who are currently developing the next generation of coursework for and about global responsibility.
- JGR is a valuable resource to all those in the business of translating scholarly output into innovative managerial practice.

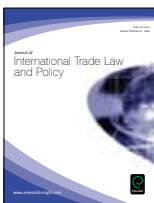

Editors

Editor-in-Chief: Professor Grant Jones
Australian Catholic University, Australia

Deputy Editor: Professor Gayle Avery
Macquarie Graduate School of Management, Australia

Journal

ISSN: 1477-0024 Volume: 11 Print Issues: 3 Internet Issues: 3 www.emeraldinsight.com/jitlp.htm

Journal of
International Trade Law and Policy

The Journal of International Trade Law and Policy (JITLP) is a peer-reviewed interdisciplinary journal which seeks to publish articles from any jurisdiction on the broad theme of international trade. The aim of the journal is to provide a forum for current issues in all aspects of international trade, including legal, economic, management and policy issues.

Coverage includes:

International trade; global markets; competition law; governance and regulation; foreign investment; internet law; business ethics; and globalisation.

Benefits and features

- JITLP aims to provide a forum for robust debate on all aspects of international trade, welcoming submissions from both experienced and inexperienced authors.
- JITLP is a double-blind peer-reviewed journal featuring contributions from expert practitioners and academics from across the globe.

Editor

Mohammad S. Ramahi
The University of Hull, UK

“Research into the governance and accountability practices of organisations in different parts of the world is crucial if we are to take a holistic view of social responsibility and move the agenda forward. Despite growing interest, importance and relevance, this is still somewhat limited in developing countries, and submissions of this nature are not always welcome in certain journals. Not so with SRJ, where they not only accept, but actively encourage submissions in this area.”

Riham R. Rizk, PhD, Accounting and Finance Course Leader, Durham Business School, UK

Journal

ISSN: 1747-1117 Volume: 8 Print Issues: 4 Internet Issues: 4 www.emeraldinsight.com/srj.htm

Social Responsibility Journal

Social responsibility is an essential part of citizenship. The Social Responsibility Journal (SRJ) interprets this in the widest possible context and thus publishes multi-disciplinary research covering a wide range of social issues.

Editors

Professor David Crowther
De Montfort University, UK

Professor Guler Aras
Yildiz Technical University,
Turkey

Coverage includes:

Corporate activity and behaviour; issues of gender, race and ethnicity; ethics and morality; ecology and environment; economy and finance; governance; governmental and trans-governmental regulation; and individuals, lifestyle and citizenship.

Benefits and features

- The journal encompasses the full range of theoretical, methodological and substantive debates in the area of social responsibility.
- SRJ publishes articles from an international authorship, which allows the reader to compare the impact of social responsibility across countries and cultures.

“Social Responsibility Journal provides scholarly discourse and debates on relevant and topical issues relating to social responsibility. The fact that multi- and inter-disciplinary contributions are encouraged ensures that the research outputs are balanced and comprehensive. This enables professionals from different academic, professional, cultural and other backgrounds to perceive and explore the issues discussed from a myriad different perspectives. The quality of the research is ensured by means of a peer review process. In short, the journal provides invaluable and essential insights and knowledge for a wide range of professionals.”

Professor Stella Vettori, University of South Africa, South Africa

Journal

ISSN: 1746-5680 Volume: 7 Print Issues: 3 Internet Issues: 3 www.emeraldinsight.com/srj.htm

Society and Business Review

Society and Business Review (SBR)* aims to cultivate and share knowledge and ideas in order to assist businesses to enhance their commitment in societies.

Editor

Professor Yvon Pesqueux
CNAM, France

Coverage includes:

Business and politics; geo-politics of business; societal change; business ethics and values; international dimensions of business and society relationships; business strategies and ecological prosperity; global social responsibility; and corporate governance.

Benefits and features

- The journal provides cross-cultural coverage, publishing papers that capture or provide insight into the differences in management styles across regions/provinces and countries.
- SBR will be of great interest to researchers, educators and senior practitioners who are interested in researching, discussing and analysing the relationship between business and society worldwide.

Book

ISSN: 2043-9059

www.emeraldinsight.com/books

Critical Studies on Corporate Responsibility, Governance and Sustainability

Series Editor

William Sun
Leeds Metropolitan University
and The Corporate
Governance and Sustainability
Research Group, UK

The aim of this book series is to explore deeply and rethink critically the theoretical debates, arguments, public concerns, institutional policies and practical issues in the broad areas of corporate responsibility, corporate governance and sustainability.

Coverage includes:

Examination of the social, economic and environmental impacts of corporations and the real effects of CSR, corporate governance and business sustainability in different societies.

The series also attempts to identify the future development trends of corporate responsibility, governance and sustainability in different contexts when examining and exploring those key issues.

There are no restrictions on the type and variety of contributions. Different perspectives and methodologies are welcomed and encouraged.

The volumes consist of state-of-the-art reviews, conceptual development or empirical research on a specific subject or topic.

Book

ISSN: 2043-0523

www.emeraldinsight.com/books

Developments in Corporate Governance and Responsibility

Series Editors

Professor Guler Aras
Yildiz Technical University,
Turkey

Professor David Crowther
De Montfort University, UK

The objective of each volume is to present current debates and research about a specific aspect of social responsibility and to show these from global and interdisciplinary perspectives. The aim is to spark debate and encourage discussion between people from different backgrounds as a way of developing and promoting best practice. The series is published in association with The Social Responsibility Research Network.

Coverage includes:

Contributors to the 2010 volume are global; including the UK, USA, Canada, Australia, South Africa, Portugal, New Zealand, Ecuador, Spain and Romania. This is typical and reflects the global nature of the Social Responsibility Research Network. Chapters included in each book are invited contributions, ensuring that the quality remains high, while the scope of coverage for each volume is coherent to make a strong book. This is in addition to the reviewing process.

Book

ISSN: 0193-5895

www.emeraldinsight.com/books

Research in Law and Economics: A Journal of Policy

Series Editors

Professor Richard O. Zerbe
University of Washington, USA

Professor John B. Kirkwood
Seattle University School of Law, USA

Since 1979 Research in Law and Economics has been presenting original research that explores the extent to which the constraints of law explain economic behavior and the role of economics in forming the law. Leading scholars, including Kenneth Arrow, Kenneth Elzinga, Victor Goldberg, Jack Hirschliefer, Paul Joskow, and Vernon Smith, have chosen Research in Law and Economics as the right forum for presenting their research.

Coverage includes:

Timely and relevant topics, which have included themes of economics of environmental policy, urban property rights, and evolutionary models in economics and law.