

Industry and Public Sector Management

A collection covering all key disciplines, featuring journals indexed by Thomson Reuters (ISI) and with more than two downloads every minute worldwide.

Journal

ISSN: 0007-070X Volume: 114 Print Issues: 11 Internet Issues: 11 www.emeraldinsight.com/bfj.htm

Editor

Professor Chris Griffith
UWIC, UK

British Food Journal

After over 100 years of publication, the British Food Journal (BFJ) continues to be highly respected worldwide for its broad and unique interdisciplinary coverage of food-related research. The journal has a strong commitment to publishing the latest food research from around the globe, all of which is reviewed and adjudicated by an international editorial board of leading experts. With its independent analysis and informed insights, it provides a vital communications link between all sectors of this dynamic industry.

Coverage includes:

Consumer choice, preferences and concerns; food-related health education: risk assessment, management and communication; marketing, distribution and retailing; quality assurance practices and strategies; nutrition; food supply and sustainability; and food safety.

Benefits and features

- BFJ has a Thomson Reuters impact factor of 0.752.

This journal is indexed by

Journal

ISSN: 1463-6697 Volume: 14 Print Issues: 6 Internet Issues: 6 www.emeraldinsight.com/info.htm

Editor

Colin Blackman
Consultant, UK

info

The journal of policy, regulation and strategy for telecommunications, information and media

info is a bi-monthly international journal concerned with the economic, social, political and regulatory aspects of the emerging tele-information economy. info is an important vehicle for the discussion of information age issues and the publication of research, business analysis and policy thinking relevant to policy makers, business strategists and academic researchers. info is essential reading for those with an interest in the emerging information economy and society.

Coverage includes:

Electronic commerce; access to information; governance in the digital age; effective competition; self-regulation; wireless and wired networks; and web 2.0.

Benefits and features

- It has a far-reaching influence in the wider media as a forward-looking journal, and has been used for articles in international publications such as The Economist.

Journal

ISSN: 0951-3558 Volume: 25 Print Issues: 7 Internet Issues: 7 www.emeraldinsight.com/ijpsm.htm

Editor

Professor Joyce Liddle
Nottingham Business School,
Nottingham Trent University,
UK

International Journal of Public Sector Management

The International Journal of Public Sector Management (IJPSM) focuses on the common issues which public sector managers face the world over – improving efficiency and effectiveness in situations of scarce resources and rising public expectations.

Coverage includes:

Health and education services; local government and regional and local development initiatives; the use of consultants and outsourcing;

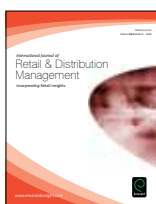

intergovernmental relations; and public/private co-operation.

Benefits and features

- IJPSM provides a truly international perspective by participating in a worldwide discussion of key issues vital to the delivery of efficient and cost-effective services in the public sector.
- It offers advice on how management techniques and concepts can be applied and developed.

Journal

ISSN: 0959-0552 Volume: 40 Print Issues: 12 Internet Issues: 12 www.emeraldinsight.com/ijrdm.htm

Editor

Professor Neil Towers
Heriot-Watt University, UK

International Journal of Retail & Distribution Management

incorporating Retail Insights

The International Journal of Retail & Distribution Management (IJRDM) focuses on issues of strategic significance in retailing and distribution worldwide and provides a forum for researchers in academia, business, consultancy and management. Not allied to any retail or distribution organization, the journal has the freedom to bring critical perspectives to current ideas, and express objective opinions on key issues and controversial topics.

Coverage includes:

International retailing; effects of globalization; impact of technology/e-commerce; alternative retail formats; and lifestyle and store patronage factors.

Benefits and features

- The journal publishes high quality and relevant research papers.
- Topical special issues covering such areas as social and experiential retailing.
- Regular issues (12 per year) allows timely publication of articles, addressing the current issues in the field.

“The International Journal of Retail & Distribution Management consistently offers insightful research that is relevant and accessible for real-life retail business and management academics alike. It is a journal that I always make a point of reading every month.”

Dr Steve Wood, School of Management, University of Surrey, UK

Journal ISSN: 0144-333X Volume: 32 Print Issues: 12 Internet Issues: 12 www.emeraldinsight.com/ijssp.htm

International Journal of
Sociology and Social Policy

Editor

Professor Colin Williams
 University of Sheffield, UK

The International Journal of Sociology and Social Policy (IJSSP) provides an interdisciplinary forum for research and debate in all branches of sociology and social policy. The journal reflects current thought and practice, presenting comprehensive coverage of issues of international importance, in a lively and informative way.

Benefits and features

- IJSSP is the only journal in the field of sociology and social policy to provide a unique business and management focus.
- It publishes academic articles and applied case study materials in all areas of sociology and social policy, but with a predominantly international and/or comparative perspective.

Coverage includes:

Poverty and social exclusion/inclusion; employment restructuring; work organization; consumption; globalization; work-life balance; family-friendly work practices; age, gender and ethnicity; and disability.

Journal ISSN: 2044-0839 Volume: 2 Print Issues: 2 Internet Issues: 2 www.emeraldinsight.com/jadee.htm

RECENT LAUNCH
2011

Journal of
Agribusiness in Developing and Emerging Economies

Editor

Professor S. P. Raj
 Syracuse University, USA

Journal of Agribusiness in Developing and Emerging Economies (JADEE)* interprets agribusiness as a discipline that studies the food and agriculture system: the individual elements, their interdependencies and their impact. Closely related to agricultural economics, the journal's focus is the application of business methodologies to the food and agricultural sector. JADEE publishes original research on topics pertaining to policies, processes and practices in the agribusiness arena.

international); consumption and eventual recycling; and industry and commodity sub-sectors including grain, dairy, oils and fats, fruit and vegetables, confectionery and coffee.

Benefits and features

- Takes a 360 degree view of agribusiness in developing and emerging countries, considering the food and agriculture value chain and its implications for economic and societal development.

Coverage includes:

Primary production (farming); post-harvest processing; marketing and distribution services (domestic and

Journal ISSN: 1757-5818 Volume: 23 Print Issues: 5 Internet Issues: 5 www.emeraldinsight.com/josm.htm

Journal of
Service Management

formerly International Journal of Service Industry Management

Editor

Professor Jay Kandampully
 Ohio State University, USA

The Journal of Service Management (JOSM) draws on leading-edge contributions to help you compare international developments and build up a broad understanding of key issues. Providing a sound basis for further study, as well as guidance on the practical implications of current thinking and research, it offers ready access to information vital to the successful operation of today's service industries.

culture; service strategy and excellence; dynamics in service relationships; service management and leadership; service operations management; human resources management; and manufacturing services.

Benefits and features

- JOSM has a Thomson Reuters impact factor of 0.857 and is a leading journal in the field of service management.

This journal is indexed by

Coverage includes:

The service encounter, the servicescape and service experiences; service quality and management; service

Journal

ISSN: 1363-951X Volume: 35 Print Issues: 4 Internet Issues: 4 www.emeraldinsight.com/pijpsm.htm

Editor

Professor Lawrence F. Travis III
University of Cincinnati, USA

Policing

An International Journal of Police Strategies & Management

Interdisciplinary and wide-ranging in scope, Policing: An International Journal of Police Strategies & Management (PIJPSM) covers the latest international developments on matters of policy, practice, management, operations, education and training, science and technology. The worldwide readership includes senior police officers and policy makers, plus academics teaching and researching in this field.

Coverage includes:

Community policing; managerial styles and leadership; performance measurement and accountability; pursuit guidelines; crime trends and analysis; crisis negotiation;

civil disorder; organized crime; victimology; crime prevention; career development.

Benefits and features

- PIJPSM is truly unique – an independent, authoritative voice on policing management and strategies.
- Publishes a round-up of all research-in-progress, as well as book and internet reviews, enabling the reader to stay abreast of developments in all facets of the industry.

This journal is indexed by

“From my viewpoint, there are few international journals in which we can publish knowledge about public management from all around the world. One of the most highly regarded journals in the field is undoubtedly the International Journal of Public Sector Management. In this journal you can find papers which provide a deep exploration of key subjects in public management and that make a solid contribution to the public sector management field.”

Professor Ricardo Gomes, University of Brasilia, Brazil

Journal

ISSN: 1750-6166 Volume: 6 Print Issues: 4 Internet Issues: 4 www.emeraldinsight.com/tg.htm

Editor

Professor Zahir Irani
Brunel Business School,
Brunel University, UK

Transforming Government: People, Process and Policy

Transforming Government (TG)* publishes leading scholarly research on the subject of technology integration and management of Government, and how this impacts on organizations and people. The journal seeks to recognize both the multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives of eGovernment, and welcomes both pure and applied research that impacts Central and Local Government.

Coverage includes:

Electronic Government applications; process management and integration; governance and electronic democracy; benefits, barriers and risks of electronic government; electronic information security management; and technology adoption and diffusion.

Benefits and features

- Provides international examples of excellence in the field of government ICT and insights on how this impacts on governments.
- TG examines how research in the private sector can be applied to the public sector, and vice versa.