

INDEX

- Academia in smart cities creation, 78
- Accessibility, 125
- Affinity to learning and life, 62
- Africa, cities in, 151–152
- Application development, 150
- Associated project partners, 78
- Attractiveness of natural conditions, 63
- Australia in smart cities creation, 79–80
- Australian Smart Communities Association (ASCA), 79–80
- Availability, 52, 149–150
- Awareness, 139

- Barcelona (network management platform), 67
- Barriers to smart city development, 136
 - complexity of smart city system, 137–138
 - economic barriers, 138
 - financial barriers, 139–140
 - governance and coordination barriers, 139
 - social barriers, 138–139
 - solutions to smart city development barriers, 140
 - technological barriers, 138
- Big Data management, 147–148, 148–149
- British Standard Institution, 80

- Capital, 88
- Citizen
 - benefits of smart city to, 127–128
 - empowerment and engagement, 123
 - involvement, 78
- City/cities, 14, 15–16, 131–132, 156
 - in Africa, 151–152
 - history of, 14–15
 - involvement, 78
 - smartisation process of, 29
- Civic participation, 67
- Cloud, 147, 148
- Collaborative procurement method, 160
- Communication
 - infrastructures, 19, 50
 - sensors, 59
- Community, 81
- Conducive environment, 18
- Connectivity, 114
- Construction industry and smart cities, 16
- Construction management procurement method, 160
- Consumers, 81
- Cost, 149
 - of designing smart city, 139–140
 - of maintenance and control, 116
 - reduction, 135
 - of smart city implementation, 138
- Creative city, 53
- Creative innovations, 27
- Creativity, 62
- Cross-sector groups, 79
- Cultural arena, 65
- Cultural facilities, 64

- Customary city administration, 26
- Cyberspace, 19
- Decision, 157
- Deliverers, 81
- Development and sustainability, 89–91
 - theories on, 91
- Digital city (see Smart city)
- Digitalised tools, 27
- Drivers of smart cities, 33–34, 121–122
 - balancing budget, 124
 - brief explanation of smart city, 122
 - economy, 125
 - energy and environment, 124–125
 - governance, 125–126
 - growing economics
 - competition, 35
 - growing environmental
 - challenges, 34–35
 - growing expectations, 35
 - growing stress, 34
 - growing urbanization, 34
 - inadequate infrastructure, 34
 - knowledge, 123
 - low risk living, 124
 - measures of smart city
 - performance, 126–127
 - mobility, 125
 - rapidly improving technology
 - capabilities, 35
 - society, 125
- Dublin in smart cities creation, 82–83
- E-administrations, 28
- E-Procurement, 37
- Economic barriers to smart city
 - development, 138
- Economic development, 97–98
- Economic of smart cities, 66
- Economic sustainability, 95–96
- Economically beneficial city, 7–8
 - smart city as, 115–116
- Economy, 17–18, 49, 73–74, 125
- Education
 - facilities, 64
 - of smart citizens, 68–69
- Efficiency, 149–150
- Empowerment intelligence, 47
- Energy, 48, 124–125
- Entrepreneurship, 61
- Environment, 18, 48, 66, 124–125
 - Environmental Agency Austria, 78
 - Environmental appearance, 46
 - Environmental protection, 63
 - procurement, 159
 - Environmental responsiveness, 59
 - Environmental sustainability, 96–97
- Ethnic plurality, 62
- Europe in smart cities creation, 82–83
- European Commission Award
 - Communication, 135
- European Union (EU), 161
- Expense incomes, 37
- External stakeholders, 81–82
- Fast track procurement method, 160
- Financial barriers to smart city
 - development, 139–140
- Financial change barriers to smart
 - cities development, 97–98
- Flexibility of labour market, 62
- Flexible service-oriented
 - computing infrastructures, 19
- 4G remote networks, 32
- ‘Garden Cities of To-morrow’, 5
- Geographic Information Systems (GIS), 67
- Global warming, 46, 75
- Good governance, 135

- Governance, 125–126
 - and civic participation, 67
 - and coordination barriers, 139
 - model, 83
- Government, 17, 73, 81–82
- Government policies, 59
 - management of smart cities, 68–69
- Green city development, 32
- Green procurement, 159
- Gross domestic product (GDP), 61, 95

- Health conditions, 64
- Healthy living, 74
- Hierarchic governance, 82
- Housing quality, 64
- Human capital, level of, 62–63
- Human city, 53–54
- Human framework, 19–20, 52
 - creative city, 53
 - human city, 53–54
 - knowledge city, 54
 - learning city, 53
- Human infrastructure, 52
- Human resources, 66

- India in smart cities creation, 79
- Inequalities, 3
- Information, 139
- Information and communication
 - technology (ICT), 14–15, 25, 27, 29, 63, 72–73, 107, 134, 136, 156–157
 - barriers of, 138
 - improvement and use of, 16
 - in smart cities, 32–33
- Information city, 50–51
- Information technology (IT), 14, 26, 46, 59
 - infrastructure, 146
 - IT-based advancement urban biological community, 24
- Innovation
 - integration, 24
 - and SD, 92–93
 - of smart city, 18, 74, 76
 - and technology, 93
- Innovative procurement methods, 160–161
- Innovative spirit, 61
- Institutional framework, 20, 54–55
- Instrumentation, 67–68
 - intelligence, 47
- Integrating information system
 - service, 145–146
- Intellectual property (IP), 161
- Intelligence, 68
- Intelligent city, 50–52
- Intelligent transport system (ITS), 107
- Interconnection, 68
- Internal stakeholder, 82
- International accessibility, 63
- International presence, 62
- International Society of City and Regional Planners (ISOCARP), 77–78
- Internet of things (IoT), 31–32, 113, 146
 - urban, 45
- Investors, 81

- Know-How City, 105
- Knowledge, 123
- Knowledge city, 54

- Labour market, flexibility of, 62
- Learning city, 53
- Life expectancy, 4
- Liveability, 38–39
- Livelihood of smart cities, 33
- Local accessibility, 63
- London in smart cities creation, 82–83

- Manageability, 38
- Market governance, 82
- Mobility, 49, 67, 125

- Natural resources, 63–64
- New Songdo city, 26
- Open data, 137–138
- Open-mindedness, 62
- Opportunities in smart cities projects, 75
- Orchestration intelligence, 47
- Organisation for International Economic Relation, 77
- Paramount, 19
- Participation
 - in decision-making, 63
 - in public life, 63
- Policy procurement requirement, 158
- Political arena, 65
- Principal project partners, 77–78
- Private firms, 69
- Private sector
 - overcome complexity barriers, 141
 - overcome economic barriers, 141
 - overcome governance barriers, 142
 - overcome social barriers, 142
 - overcome technological barriers, 141
 - references, 141
 - in smart cities creation, 78
- Procurement, 157–158
 - common drawbacks to smart cities procurement, 161–162
 - construction industry, 155–156
 - measures to challenge of procurement of smart city, 162
 - methods, 159–160
 - public, 158
 - public procurement system, 158–159
 - of smart cities, 160–161
- Promoter, 81
- Public management, 67
- Public procurement, 158
- Public procurement system, 158–159
- Public sector references, 140
 - overcome complexity barriers, 140
 - overcome economic barriers, 140
 - overcome governance barriers, 141
 - overcome social barriers, 141
 - overcome technological barriers, 140
- Public services, 63
- Qualification level, 62
- Quality of life, 4, 49, 74, 125, 135, 145
 - ease of doing things, 106
 - functionality, 105–106
 - good transport management, 107
 - meanings of smart cities, 104–105
 - rural–urban migration, 103–104
 - of smart cities citizens, 105
 - time loss eradication, 106
 - waste minimisation and control, 106–107
- Remote sensing, 67
- Resilient city system, 7–8
- Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, 78
- Rural–urban migration, 103–104
- Safety conditions, 64
- Scalability, 149–150
- Siloed, piecemeal implementations, 37–38
- Single source procurement method, 160

- Smart administration, 132
- Smart cities citizens, quality of life of, 105–107
- Smart Cities Community
 - European Innovation, 135
- Smart Cities Council, 35, 38
- Smart cities development
 - application development, 150
 - barriers to, 94–95
 - Big Data management, 148–149
 - challenges in
 - cities in Africa, 151–152
 - Cloud, 148
 - cost, 149
 - efficiency, availability and scalability, 149–150
 - factors posing challenges to smart cities development, 146
 - integrating information system service, 145–146
 - IoT, 147–148
 - IT Infrastructure, 146
 - security and privacy, 146
 - social adaption, 150
- Smart cities team members, 59–60
- Smart cities/city, 4–5, 14, 15–16, 45, 59, 104, 110, 121–122, 132, 156–157
 - barriers, 35
 - benefits of, 8, 38
 - characteristics of, 7, 17, 61–64
 - concept, 6–7, 112
 - conceptualisation of, 24–26
 - construction industry and, 16
 - construction sector as, 13–14
 - content of smartisation process, 30–32
 - definition, 26–27, 60–61, 72–73
 - descriptions of, 111–112
 - development, 73
 - drivers, 33–34
 - as economically beneficial city, 115–116
 - economy, 17–18, 49, 73–74
 - education of smart citizens, 68–69
 - energy and environment, 48
 - enhance workability, 39
 - enhanced liveability, 38–39
 - enhanced sustainability, 38
 - environment, 18, 74
 - evolution, 5–6
 - features of, 20–21, 76, 113
 - finance, lack of, 37
 - force of, 72
 - forms of intelligence, 47
 - frameworks, 18–19
 - governance, 49
 - growing economics
 - competition, 35
 - growing environmental challenges, 34–35
 - growing expectations, 35
 - growing stress, 34
 - growing urbanization, 34
 - history of, 14–15
 - human framework, 19–20, 52–54
 - inadequate infrastructure, 34
 - initiative, 20
 - innovation of, 14
 - institutional framework, 20, 54–55
 - lack of citizen engagement, 36
 - lack of ICT know-how, 37
 - lack of integrated services, 36–37
 - lack of smart city visionary, 36
 - levels of becoming, 48
 - management, 64
 - management of government policies of smart cities, 68–69
 - meanings of, 104–105
 - measures of smart city performance, 126–127
 - mobility, 49
 - opportunities in projects, 75

- performing variables indicator
 - of, 17
- problems of, 74–75
- procurement of, 160–161
- rapidly improving technology
 - capabilities, 35
- reasons for, 7
- resilient city system, economically
 - beneficial city, 7–8
- Siloed, piecemeal
 - implementations, 37–38
- smart city benefits to citizens, 127–128
- smartisation process of city, 29
 - as socially inclusive city, 113–115
- society, 18, 49–50, 74
- stakeholders in smart cities
 - management, 65–67
- sustainability and ICT in smart cities, 32–33
- team members, people and
 - participant involved in smart cities creation, 76–83
- technological management of, 67–68
- technology framework, 19, 50–52
- theories and models, 46–48
- traits of smart city areas, 27–29
- urbanisation, 23–24
- Smart citizens
 - development, 66
 - education of, 68–69
- Smart city administration
 - development, 32
- Smart city dimensions, 132
 - barriers to smart city development, 136–139
 - formation of smart cities, 132
 - idea of smart city, 136
 - private sector references, 141–142
 - public sector references, 140–141
 - smart city chain of dimension, 133–136
 - solutions to smart city
 - development barriers, 140
- Smart city framework (SCF), 80–81
- Smart city team partnership, 71–83
- Smart communities, 15, 26
- Smart economy, 28, 49, 61, 134
- Smart education, 15
- Smart environment, 27–28, 63–64, 134
- Smart family development, 30–31
- Smart general administrations, 31
- Smart governance, 17, 28, 49, 63, 73
- Smart government, 15
- Smart individuals, 134–135
- Smart industry, 15
- Smart living, 28, 64, 135
- Smart medicinal treatment
 - improvement, 31–32
- Smart mobility, 49, 63, 132–133
- Smart people, 15, 28–29, 62–63, 133
- Smart Planet, 26
- Smart technology, 106
- Smart transportation, 107, 134
 - development, 31
- Smart urban
 - areas, 114
 - territories, 29
- Smart vacationer focus
 - development, 32
- Smartisation process, 24–25
 - of city, 29
 - content of, 30
 - green city development, 32
 - smart city administration
 - development, 32
 - smart family development, 30–31
 - smart general administrations and improvement of social administration, 31
 - smart medicinal treatment improvement, 31–32

- smart transportation
 - development, 31
- smart vacationer focus
 - development, 32
- wireless city development, 30
- Smartness of city, 111
- Social adaptation, 150
- Social administration,
 - improvement of, 31
- Social barriers to smart city
 - development, 138–139
- Social cohesion, 64, 66
- Social infrastructures, 19–20
- Social service framework, 31
- Social services, 63
- Social sustainability, 96
- Socialisation, 74
- Socially inclusive city, smart city
 - as, 113–115
- Society, 18, 49–50, 125
- Stakeholders, 78, 81, 96
 - in smart cities management, 65–67
- Strategic stakeholder's
 - engagement, 65
- Structural plurality, 62
- Sustainability, 5, 24, 25, 27, 87, 89
 - contradictory discourse in SD, 89
 - development and, 89–91
 - different perceptions on, 89
 - enhanced, 38
 - in smart cities, 32–33
- Sustainable city, 5–6
- Sustainable City (see Smart city)
- Sustainable development (SD), 4, 16, 26, 34, 87, 89
 - barriers to smart cities
 - development, 94–95
 - challenges, trends and needs, 97
 - companies manage innovation, 94
 - contemporary challenges of SD
 - concept, 91–92
 - contradictory discourse of
 - sustainability in SD, 89
 - development and sustainability, 89–91
 - drivers of, 92
 - economic development and
 - financial change, 97–98
 - economic sustainability, 95–96
 - environmental sustainability, 96–97
 - innovation and, 92–93
 - innovation and technology, 93
 - principle of, 88–89
 - social sustainability, 96
 - survival policies, 88
- Sustainable resource management, 63
- Sustainable Urbanization Policy, 110
- Synergies, 46
- Systematic network governance, 82
- Technological infrastructures, 50
- Technological management of
 - smart cities, 67–68
- Technology, 92
 - digital city, 50
 - framework, 19, 50
 - information city, 51
 - innovation and, 93
 - intelligent city, 51–52
 - ubiquitous city, 52
 - virtual city, 51
- 3G remote networks, 32
- Time loss eradication, 106
- Tourist activity, 64
- Traditional procurement method, 160
- Transparent governance, 63
- Transport systems, sustainable,
 - innovative and safe, 63
- Transportation, 67
- Ubiquitous city (U-city), 50, 52
- UN Habitat, 77

- United Kingdom in smart cities
 - creation, 80–82
- United Nations (UN), 34, 76
- United Nations Economic Commission (UNECE), 77
- United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP), 92, 110
- United Smart Cities Project (2014), 76
- Urban arranging approach, 29
- Urban city, 5–7, 34, 137
- Urban informatics and technologies, 19
- Urban planning, 66–67
- Urbanisation, 14, 23–24, 97
 - growing, 34
- Urbanism, 5
- Value for money, 161
- Vendors, 66
- Virtual city, 50–51
 - infrastructure, 67
- Waste minimisation and control, 106–107
- Web, 30
- Web 2. 0 technology, 73
- Wi-Fi innovation, 30
- Wi-MAX, 30
- Wired City (see Smart city)
- Wireless city development, 30
- Wireless expansive system, 30
- Workability of smart cities, 33, 39
- Workforce
 - humans, 53–54
 - skilled, 20, 52–53
- World Commission on Environment and Development (WCED), 33