

Index

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” indicate notes.

- Achieving goals, 63, 72, 139–141
- Afternoons, 30, 59, 96, 97, 147–8
- American Time Use Survey (ATUS), 34
- Anxiety, 2, 25, 31, 78, 99, 101–103, 115, 154
- Appointments, 30, 63, 98
- Assemblages, 5, 9, 19, 22, 87, 109, 111, 135
- Austerity, 91

- Burnout, 19, 151, 156
- Busyness
 - frustrations, 18, 49, 91, 152, 153
 - keep on going, 105, 112
 - ‘off the clock’, 60, 74, 82
 - paradoxes, 2, 19, 30, 149
 - therapeutic qualities, 19, 134–136, 138–139, 142, 153, 157
- Care
 - for others, 17, 78–79, 81, 101, 132, 153, 144–145
 - for ourselves, 8, 61, 68, 136, 142–143
 - space, , 98
- Center Parcs, 113
- Childcare
 - gender differences, 46, 156
 - spending more time, 46, 47, 125
- Children, Apollonian references to, 78
- Clocks, 9, , 25, 30–31
- Community and Immunity, 137–138
- Control society, 13, 26
- Cooking and food preparation,
 - 46Covid-19 pandemic, 4–5, 10, 17, 20, 24, 104, 115–116, 151, 156–157
- Craft
 - craftafternoons, 146–149
 - doing crochet, 147–148
 - dressmaking, 143–144
 - making time for, 142
 - space, 141–142
 - teaching crochet, 7, 8, 142, 145–148
- Critical Horology, 25–26, 30

- Dasein, 24
- De-territorialisation, 85
- Distraction, 20, 77, 108, 144
- Domestic
 - blurring with public or work space, 94, 116
 - space, 98–99, 157

- Emotions of family life, 120–121
- Endurance, 17, 156
- Entrepreneurship, 13, 105
- Ethnicity, 70n26, 125, 146n47, 156
- European Commission Time Use Harmonisation Study, 34
- Events and non-events, 19, 81
- Exhaustion, 13, 116, 122–124, 134
- Experience economy, 135

- Family
 - families we live by, 10, 19, 120–125
 - families we live with, 125–131
 - holidays, 113
 - pets, 59, 98
 - practices, 117–118
 - roles, 113–114, 117
 - routines, 126–127
- Family-friendly policies, 114
- Feminist theory, 17, 101, 138

- Flow activities, 139–142
 autotelic personality, 140 experience sample method, 139 experiencing flow, 139–140 and the self, 140–141
- Forest bathing, 135–136, 138
- Four-day week, 154–155
- Four-hour week, 93
- Freedom
 me-time, 10, 133–135 positive and negative, 135–136
- Friends, 78, 117, 149
- Futures, 153–155
- Gender identities, 53, 57, 70, 72, 79 inequalities, 17, 46, 155 norms, 73, 77–81
- Getting Things Done*, 9, 67, 79, 82, 85–86, 103
- Global capitalism, 16–17, 19, 94, 95
- Guilt, 122–124
- Habit changing habits, 87, 154 thinking habits, 18–19, 104
- Happiness, 138–139
- Health and social care, 5, 103
- Hot or hotel-desking, 85, 157
- Household
 co-ordinating household members, 130, 152–153 distribution of activities, 15, 46
- Improperly, 93
- Income Inequality, 93
- Individualism
 choice and self-biography, 13 decline of institutional schedules, 12, 58
 social change, 15, 152
- Interdependency, 4, 11, 19, 22, 26, 95, 110
- International Association for Time Use Research, 48
- Lateness, 31, 129
- Leisure
 in past time, 20 relationship with freedom, 135–136 study of, 48
 theory of leisure class, 92
- Libraries, 109, 110
- Life-course, 5, 54
- Lifestyle, 22, 32, 66, 82, 93
- Mass observation archive (MOA), 6, (see also One-day diaries)
 2017 Autumn Directive, 50–58, 94–100
- Mealtimes
 breakfast, 52, 59, 100, 107, 130 evening meal, 57, 99
 lunchtime, 57, 58, 97, 100
- Means and ends, 83–84, 139
- Methodology
 autoethnography, 8, 143–145 content analysis, 7, 72 narrative method, 7, 96, 119–120 repurposing data, 6, 120 sampling, 70
 secondary data analysis, 6
- Mind and body dualism, 18
- Molecular lines, 13, 85
- Moral economy, 91–94
- Networks, 11, 12, 22, 94, 102, 110, 115
- Newcastle-upon Tyne, UK, 89
- Nostalgia, 22
- One-day diaries
 distribution of time-points, 55–58
 diurnal rhythms, 55–56 structure of, 51–54
- Organisations
 diversity of, 95
 hierarchal management, 85–86, 102 horizontal management, 85–86
 spatial arrangement, 95
- Outsourcing, 77–78, 93

- Pace of life, 11, 14, 16, 20, 22, 48–49
- Phenomenology direction of time, 24
 synthesis of past, present future, 22–25, 84
- Philofaxy, 65
- Politics of time, 15–16, 24–25, 86
- Post-structuralism, 11
- Power-chronography, 16n26, 94
- Pragmatism, 83–84
- Precarity, 116
- Procrastination, 107, 147–148
- Productivity 4, 17, 33, 69, 74, 81–84, 93, 101, 102, 106, 117,
 154–155
- Protestant Ethic and Spirit of Capitalism*, 91–92
- Reflective modernity, 102
- Relationships
 intimate and family, 1–2, 119, 128, 130 social disembedding of, 115
 at work, 99, 125
- Repetition, 31, 92, 100, 110, 120, 128, 130, 132, 145, 144
- Responsibility
 conflicting, 101
 delegation of, 12, 90, 101, 115, 152, 157
 for others, 144–145
 for ourselves, 68, 69, 77
 reciprocity, 137
- Rhythm
 analysis, 32, 49–50 circular, 50, 54
 linear, 9, 50, 55–56, 148
- Routines
 afternoon/evening, 55–56
 domestic, 33–34, 113–114, 131
 morning, 59, 82, 107, 130
 at work, 60–61
 writing routines, 107–108
- Scientific management, 34
- Self-discipline, 81, 110
- Self-employment, 105
- Self-help
 history of, 67
 self-help for women, 70
 self-improvement, 67–68
- Self-help books on time management
 aesthetics, 73–75
 authenticity, 75–77
 gender norms, 77–81
- Shopping, 126
- Social acceleration, 8, 11, 14, 46
- Social and cultural change, 15, 21, 22, 48, 64, 91, 111, 138, 152
- Social class, 68, 70n26 115–116
- Social practices, 5, 18
- Sorry We Missed You*, 89–91
- Speed, 14–15, 22, 26, 69, 103, 111
- Sydney, Australia, 117
- Technological determinism, 22
- Technology
 digital devices, 66, 85, 99, 131
 social change, 11, 14, 27
 social norms in use of, 115 of the self, 136
- Teleology and non-teleology, 72, 84, 141
- The Clock*, 9, 29–32, 47, 50, 54, 56, 58
- The Guardian Newspaper
 A Writer's Day, 106–110
- Tickler file, 83–84
- Time
 authenticity, 24
 being on time, 103–104
 boundaries, 94, 98
 control over, 104–105 cultural differences, 31 exploitation, 16, 21, 32, 93, 94
 family, 113–132
 morality, 134–135
 recalibration, 111
 telling the time, 54–55 wasting, 148–149
- Time experience, objective and subjective, 16, 25, 31, 47–48
- Time geography, 49

- Time management individual strategies, 81–82
 managing space and other people, 84–86
- Time planners
 aesthetics, 66
 history of, 65
- Time pressure
 co-ordination with other people, 100, 103, 123
 individual use, 51, 95
 trends over time, 20, 46–48
 use of technology, 131
 at work, 100–104
 work extension, 46
- Time tracking, 60–63
- Time use data (see also American Time Use Survey)
 gender differences in time use, 44
 history of, 32–35
 scoping study of, 35–47
 trends over time, 35–47
 in USA, 32–35
 in USSR, 32–35
- Time-motion study, 34
- Time-space, 9, 13, 90
- Time-space compression, 14
- Times Square, 11, 157
- Timescapes Archive work and family lives study, 114
- Timing
 significance of, 9, 25–26
 synchronization, 49–50
- 24 hour society, 15, 32, 133, 150
- Unfairness, 93–94
- Waiting, 16*n*28, 17, 86, 147–148
- Weekends, 113, 125–126
- Well-being, 135–6, 135*n*12, 138, 141–142, 142*n*37, 68
- White Rabbit, 1–5, 73, 157
- Women's paid employment in 19th and early 20th centuries, 20–21
 trends over time, 53
- Work
 colleagues, 2, 96, 98, 99, 101–104
 creative, 106, 112
 cultural history of, 91–92 ethics, 92
 diversity of, 94
 moral outcomes of, 94 paid and unpaid work, 46 project work, 102–103
 space, 9, 84–86, 103–104, 108–110, 116–117
 starting and finishing, 63 working at home, 104–105, 99–100, 157
 working for oneself, 105–110 writing as work, 94
- Work-discipline, 21, 92
- Work-life balance (WLB), 114–118
 being and not being in balance, 114–116
 changes over time, 115 flexibility, 115
 individualization, 115
 relevance of financial constraints, 118 retrospective, 124–125
 rhythms, 117
- Workaholics, 106
- Yukashima, Japan, 136