

Index

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” with numbers indicate footnotes.

- Accredited investor (see Qualified investors)
- Advertising Law, 201, 202*n*10
- Agricultural Bank of China, 35*n*5
- Airbnb, 240
- Ajzen’s model, 53
- Alibaba, 194, 198–200, 208, 211, 222, 224
 - Alibaba/PWC Project, 223–224
 - blockchain, 224
- Aliexpress, 198–199
- Alliance of Credit and Savings for Production, 148
- Amazon, 175
 - distribution of ratings on, 241
 - and rating systems, 232
 - Vine program, 232
- American entrepreneurs, 82
- American Research and Development Foundation, 168
- Angel financing, 163
 - scale, 166
 - VC vs., 168
- Angel investors, 163
 - measures of “sophistication”, 164
 - qualified investor criteria, 164–166
 - qualified investors, 163–164
 - significance of business angels, 163
- Anonymity, 172
 - effect on likelihood to review, 236–237
- Anti-unfair Competition Law, 201
- Artificial intelligence, 221–222
- Attitudes
 - to entrepreneurial behavior, 53–54
 - toward MFIs, 152–153
- Average Treatment on the Treated (ATT), 126
- B2B marketplaces, 191–192
- B2C marketplaces, 191–192
- Baidu, 194, 222
 - positioning, 193*n*2
 - search volume, 214–218
- Balancing property, 117
- Bank of China, 35*n*5
- “Big 4” state-owned banks, 35–36
- Bitcoin, 175, 178, 181
- BitMarkets, 232
- Black-market rate, 41
- Blockchain technology, 194, 222–223
- Borrowing decisions, collectivism on, 154–155
- BTL retailing, 194
- Business
 - angels, 163
 - creation, 1
 - planning component, 49, 57
- “Byol”, 41–42
- Cainiao logistic network, 200, 223
- Capeltic coffee shops, 106
- Capital markets, 162–163
- Cargos*, 112
- “Cash-out” for investors, 169
- Chiapas (coffee-producing states of Mexico), 106–107
 - social capital types in, 111–112
- China
 - consumers, 192
 - digital ecosystem, 209
 - e-revolution, 194
 - Ecommerce Industry, 194–197
 - main micro-blogging website, 193
 - middle class, 209–210
 - State-controlled funds, 199
- China Construction Bank, 35*n*5

- China Food and Drug Administration (CFDA), 204, 225
- “Choson Exchange”, 38
- Coffee, 104
 - cooperatives, 105–108, 113–114, 125, 129
 - crisis, 113
 - paradox, 104
 - value chain, 105
- Collectivism on microfinance in Senegal
 - basic theoretical framework, 143–145
 - case study of microfinance in Senegal, 148–155
 - empirical strategy, 141–142
 - ethnographic research question, 159
 - ethnographic strategy, 142–143
 - Mamadou B*’s microloan contact, 160
 - methodology, 141
 - relationship between collectivism and microfinance, 145–148
 - theoretical framework, 141
- Collectivist culture, 147
- cultural norms, 140, 152
- Community
 - community-based trust, 180–181
 - involvement, 87
 - support, 86
- Comprehensive Economic Development
 - growth plan, 94
- Conceptual approaches, 208–209
- Conditional independence assumption, 117
- Consumer behavior
 - challenges to existing pilot testing, 224–225
 - China’s Ecommerce Industry, 194–197
 - conceptual approaches, 208–209
 - Ecommerce as governmental interest, 197–200
 - empirical analysis of regulatory effects on, 210–221
 - existing blockchain technologies, 221–224
 - online shoppers in China and internet users, 195–196
 - penetration rate of internet users, 196
 - profiling techniques, 210
 - regulations and governmental agenda, 201–205
 - impact of safety concerns to, 205–208
 - shaping, 192
- Consumer Protection Law, 201–203
- Cooperative impact evaluation results, 130
 - income, 133–134
 - market access, 133
 - price per kilo, 130, 133–134
 - propensity-score matching, 130, 133
- Cooperative membership, 107
- Cooperative movement, 113
- Cooperative participation determinants, 117, 126
 - demographic characteristics, 126–128
 - descriptive statistics of independent variables, 118–119
 - individual social capital, 128–129
 - log of course count, 123
 - matching quality test, 121
 - time to population center, 122
 - village social capital, 129–130
- Coordination for illicit drugs, 177–181
 - offline drug market, 177–178
 - online drug market, 178–179
- Coyotes*, 106, 123
- Credit Mutuel du Senegal, 149
- Criminal organizations, 176
- Cross-border commerce, 209
- Cross-country data analysis, 141
- Cryptomarkets, 172–173
 - administrators, 177
 - hierarchies, markets, and networks for coordinating, 175–177
 - for illicit drugs, 173–175
 - Narco-entrepreneurs, 181–184
 - trust, reciprocity, and coordination of markets for illicit drugs, 177–181
- Cultural/culture, 74
 - collectivism, 144
 - component, 82–84
 - teachings, 87
 - tension, 86

- Customer
 customer-driven business, 184
 information, 202
 service, 206–207
 “Cyber Silk Road”, 199
 Cybercrime, 174
- Daigou* (Chinese personal shoppers),
 207n17, 216
- Dark net, 175
- Democratic People’s Republic of Korea’s model (DPRK’s model), 34
 banking system, 40 challenges in adopting innovation and entrepreneurship initiatives, 41–42
 China–DPRK trade volume, 37
 “Donju” in economic development, 40–41 entrepreneurs and innovation for achieving national goals, 38–39
 entrepreneurship and innovation in DPRK’s financial sector,
 39–41
 estimated year-to-year GDP growth of North Korea despite sanctions, 35
 GDP capita per USD between North and South Korea, 36
 North Korea’s major trading partners, 36
 nuclear ambitions or economic development, 34–37 sustainability of simultaneous pursuits, 42–43
- Demographic approaches, 51
 characteristics with cooperative participation, 126–128
- Denuclearization, 41
- Department of Commerce (DOC), 73
- Developed countries, 4–6, 18
 economic growth in, 9
- Developing countries, 6
 economic growth in, 14
 strategic priorities in, 22
- DHgate, 198
- DICONSA (rural food store program),
 112, 120
- “Digital Free Trade Zone” in Malaysia,
 198–199
- Diné* (Navajo), 75
 demographics, 70
 economic development, 70
- Diné entrepreneur(ship), 69–70, 87 including and communicating with, 97
 bureaucracy, 95
 community support, 86
 cultural component, 82–84 cultural teachings, 87 cultural tension, 86 culture, 74
 economy, 71–74
 family experience, 80 governmental experience, 80
 Hózhó ~ balance, 84–85
 implications, 98–99 improving access to funding and financing, 96
 individual entrepreneur, 82
 individualism, 87
 interviewees, 76–77
 investment in current and future, 97–98
 market gap, 80–81
 Navajo consumer, 91
 Navajo government, 91–93
 Navajo Nation government, 70–71 networks, 90–91
 off-reservation competition, 91 outside experience, 79–80 personal characteristics of, 89 political agenda, 94 problem solvers, 88–90
 recognizing and understanding, 97
 recommendations, 99–100 requirement for education, 95–96, 98 resilience, 85–86
 respondents, 93–94
 results, 77–79
 significance of research, 76
 startup costs, 81 statement of problem, 75–76
 support services, 98

- supporting local governments and institutions, 96–97
 - traditional involvement, 88
 - traditional sectors, 81–82
 - unsupportive attitude, 94
- Direct listing, 169
- Division of Economic Development (DED), 72–73
- “Donju” in DPRK’s economic development, 40–41
- eBay, 175, 233, 240
- Ecommerce, 191, 194
 - as governmental interest, 197–200
 - public–private investments in, 199–200
 - Xi Jinping’s Stance on, 198–199
- Ecommerce Law, 201
- Economic growth, 4
 - characteristics, 5
 - in developed countries, 9
 - in developing countries, 14
 - and integration processes in entrepreneurship, 7–20
 - perspectives of quality by integration processes in entrepreneurship, 20–24
 - quality, 6
 - recommendations for accelerating quality by integration processes, 24–27
- Economic/economy
 - development strategies, 81
 - of Diné, 71–74
 - disparity, 75–76
 - theory, 108, 141
- EcoSenegal, 154
- Ejido* system, 110
- Eleventh Central Committee of Chinese Communist Party, 199
- Empirical strategy, 141–142
- ENHRUM program, 117
- Entrepreneurial finance, 161–162
 - valuation in, 169
- Entrepreneurial intentions (EIs), 48, 52
 - contextual and environmental factors, 59–61
 - exogenous factors, 56–57
 - of individual in Asian Countries, 53–54
 - literature review, 50–54
 - perceived motivators and barriers, 60–61
- Entrepreneurs/entrepreneurial/
 - entrepreneurship (see also Narco-entrepreneurs), 1, 47–48, 72, 82–84, 98–99, 141, 150–151, 162, 165, 167, 169
 - for achieving national goals, 38–39
 - challenges in adopting innovation and, 41–42
 - clustering of, 26
 - courses, 54
 - for Diné people, 76
 - in DPRK’s financial sector, 39–41
 - economic growth and integration processes in, 7–20
 - education, 48
 - event model, 52
 - graduates, 54–58
 - integration, 5
 - as intentional, planned behavior, 52–53
 - limitation of independent, 24
 - literature review, 4–5
 - macroeconomic consequences of integration, 4
 - model, 5–7
 - as natural behavior, 50–51
 - optimization of integration processes in, 6
 - personality, 51
 - perspectives of quality of economic growth, 20–24
 - recommendations for accelerating quality of economic growth, 24–27
 - on reservation, 99
 - restraining mergers and acquisitions in, 25
 - solid foundation on, 38
 - spectrum of, 86
 - ventures, 49, 60
 - Entrepreneurship and Development in 21st Century*, 1–2

- Entrepreneurship education, 54, 59
 - exogenous factors, 56–57
 - research on nature, impact, and effect, 55
 - school entrepreneurial education programs in Asian Countries, 57–58
- Entrepreneurship education programs (EEPs), 49, 55, 57

- Face-to-face trades, 172
- Fair trade movement, 105, 108–110
- Fair trade premium, 108–109
- Feedback
 - mechanisms, 240
 - observations on usefulness and prevalence, 233
- Financial
 - contracts, 162
 - investor, 168
 - market conditions, 162–163
 - services, 141
 - system, 37, 40
- Financing entrepreneurship evolution
 - Angel investors, 163–167
 - exit strategies for early-stage investors, 169
 - history of VC, 168–169
 - valuation in entrepreneurial finance, 169
 - VC and private equity, 166–167
- Food Safety Law, 201, 207
- Foreign Direct Investment (FDI), 37

- GDP per capita, 5, 9, 28, 145, 148
 - in constant prices, 13
 - individualism vs., 146
 - regression dependence, 11, 13, 17
- Gross added value, 8–9, 13
 - GDP per capita on structural elements of, 17
 - GDP per capita on volume of, 11
 - index of innovational development on volume of, 12, 18
 - structure, 14
 - yearly growth rate of GDP in constant prices on volume of, 10, 16
- Group-borrowing system, 150

- Harmonized Code System (HS code system), 200
- Hazard Analysis of ingredients and factory inspection, 204
- Hedge funds, 163
- Helpfulness scores, 234
 - user review, 235
- HFG Law & Intellectual Property, 202
- Hi-tech entrepreneurs, 182
- Hózhó ~ balance, 84–85

- IBM/Wal-mart/Jd. com/Tsinghua Project, 222–223
- Illicit drugs, cryptomarkets for, 173–175
- Import Taxation Regulation, 200
- Index Funds, 169
- Individual entrepreneur, 82
- Individual social capital, 128–129
- Individualism, 87, 145
 - Geert Hofstede's Index of, 141
- Individualistic cultures, 147
- Industrial and Commercial Bank of China, 35*n*5
- Infant formula
 - consumers, 206
 - industry within Alibaba's C2C and B2C marketplaces, 212–214
 - registrations, 204–205
 - stimuli of infant formula buyers, 205
- Information
 - and consultation measure, 26
 - parsimony, 176
 - technology, 177
- Innovation
 - for achieving national goals, 38–39
 - challenges in adopting innovation and entrepreneurship initiatives, 41–42
 - in DPRK's financial sector, 39–41
 - innovational networks of companies, 26
 - network, 6
 - OECD defining, 40
- Intangible/Soft Assets, 162
- Integration processes in entrepreneurship (see also Entrepreneurship), 6, 24
 - economic growth and, 7–20

- optimization, 21, 23
- perspectives of quality of economic growth by, 20–24
- recommendations for accelerating quality of economic growth, 24–27
- Intellectual Property Protection platform, 208
- Interaction with practice component, 49, 57
- Intercontinental ballistic missiles (ICBMs), 34
- International Coffee Agreement (1989), 104
- International Coffee Organization, 109
- International Monetary Fund (2016), 148
- Internet Content Provider license (ICP license), 192*n*1
- Islamic microfinance (2012), 149
- JD, 193–194, 211, 224
- Kaesong Industrial Complex, 37
- Kedougou region, 143
- Kuajijingtong, 200
- Kuajingou, 200
- Lab for Entrepreneurship and Development (LEAD), 2
- Licensing and registrations, 201
- Liuzhou, 217*n*27
- Loan amount comparison, 145
 - individualism vs. average loan amount, 146
 - individualism vs. GDP per capita, 146
 - regression results, 147
- Made in China 2025, 199, 222
- Mamadou B*'s microloan contact (translated into english), 160
- Marketing storytelling, 209
- Marketplaces, 197, 202, 232
- Markets, 176
 - capitalization, 164
 - gap, 80–81
- Matching quality test, 121
- Memorandum of Understandings (MOUs), 208
- Merging and acquisitions (M&A), 6, 8, 14, 199
- Mexican ejido system, 117
- Microfinance, 140, 145
 - loan amount comparison, 145, 146, 147
 - loan term comparison, 145, 147–148
- Microfinance in Senegal, 140–141
 - attitudes toward MFIs, 152–153
 - case study of, 148
 - collectivism on borrowing decisions, 154–155
 - current landscape of, 148–149
 - microcredit, 149–152
 - structure of, 149
- Microfinance institutions (MFIs), 140
 - attitudes toward, 152–153
- Microloans, 141
 - borrowing decisions, 140–141
- Microsavings, 149–152
- Narco-entrepreneurs (see also
 - Entrepreneurs/entrepreneurial/entrepreneurship), 181
 - hi-tech entrepreneurs, 182
 - identity, 182–183
 - non-violent crime, 183
 - quality service and customer-driven business, 184
- National-level Regulations, 201–203
- Navajo
 - consumer, 91
 - culture, 88
 - economic growth, 72
 - government, 91–93
- Navajo Nation, 70
 - government, 70–71
- Navajo Nation Business Opportunity Act, 73
- Navajo Nation Code (NNC), 72–74
- Navajo Nation DED (NN DED), 94
- Navajo Nation Tax Commission (NNTC), 73
- Networks in Diné entrepreneurship, 90–91
- Non-violent crime, 183

- North Korea, 34
 - estimated year-to-year GDP growth of North Korea despite sanctions, 35
 - GDP capita per USD between South Korea and, 36
 - major trading partners, 36
- Off-reservation, 75
 - competition, 91
- Offline drug dealing organizations, 183
- Offline drug markets, 172
- “One Belt and One Road” policy (OBOR policy), 198–199
- One-Child Policy, 206
- Online drug markets, 172
- Online to offline (O2O), 194
- Open-Up Policy, 195
- OpenBazaar, 232
- Orange Money, 151
- Orascom Telecom and Media Technology, 41–42
- Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), 40
- Partnership for Mobilizing Savings and Credit in Senegal, 148
- Peer to peer technologies (P2P technologies), 231
- Personal-based trust, 180
- Personality theory, reliance on, 51
- “Pilot Cities for Cross-border E-commerce Import” project, 199–200
- Pilot testing, challenges to existing, 224–225
- Political agenda in Diné entrepreneurship, 94
- PRC Food Safety Standards, 202
- Price Law of the PRC, The, 201
- Private equity, 166–167
 - firms, 167
- Product Quality Law, 201
- Progres/Oportunidades program, 125
- Propensity
 - to act, 52–53
 - score, 116–117
- Propensity-score matching (PSM), 117, 126, 129, 132, 134
- Public–Private Investments in Ecommerce, 199–200
- Public–private partnership (PPP), 198, 200, 221
- Punk capitalism, 183
- Pyongyang University of Science & Technology (PUST), 38
- Qualified investor criteria, 164–166
- Quality, 5
 - service, 184
- Quick response (QR), 193
 - codes, 224
- R&D investments, 221–222
- Red Capitalism*, 72
- Renewable energy resources, 81
- Reputation
 - adverse selection in reviews market, 236
 - anonymity effect on likelihood to review, 236–237
 - data processing and results, 233–234
 - decentralized reputation networks, 237
 - helpful reviews to giving positive ratings, 235
 - incentives for writing reviews, 236
 - observations on usefulness and prevalence of feedback, 233
 - review selection bias measurement, 237
 - structures, 233
 - systems, 232
 - user review helpfulness scores, 235
- Research online, purchase offline (ROPO), 194
- Reviews
 - adverse selection in reviews market, 236
 - anonymity effect on likelihood to, 236–237
 - helpful reviews to giving positive ratings, 235
 - incentives for writing, 236
 - selection bias measurement, 237
 - user review helpfulness scores, 235

- “Rural Taobao” project, 197–198
- Securities Act (1933), 164
- Senegal, microfinance in, 140–141
 - attitudes toward MFIs, 152–153
 - case study of, 148
 - collectivism on borrowing decisions, 154–155
 - current landscape of, 148–149
 - microsavings, 149–152
 - structure of, 149
- Senegalese Mutual Credit, 148
- ShadowCrew, 174
- Shanghai Administration for Industry and Commerce, 202
- Shapiro’s model, 52–53
- Silk Road, 175
- Singapore-based Choson Exchange educators, 39
- Social capital, 107, 111
 - module, 121, 122
 - types in Chiapas, 111–112
- Social capital indicators, 117, 120
- Social commerce, 193
- Social media, 193
- Social networks, 140
- Special Economic Zones (SEZs), 199
- Spotify Technology S.A. (SPOT), 169
- Standardization Law of the PRC, 201
- State-owned enterprises (SOE), 40, 210
- Sub-Saharan Africa, 140, 148
- Supply chain traceability
 - Alibaba/PWC Project, 223–224
 - existing blockchain technologies for applied to, 221–224
 - IBM/Wal-mart/Jd. com/Tsinghua Project, 222–223
- Taobao, 202
 - IPP system, 208
 - marketplaces, 210–211
 - villages, 197
- Telecommunications Regulations of People’s Republic of China, 192
- Tencent, 194, 222
- Terman, Frederick (Father of Silicon Valley), 166
- The Onion Routing (TOR), 172, 175
- Theoretical economic model, 145, 146
- Theory of Planned Behavior (TPB), 52, 56
- Tmall marketplaces, 202, 210–212
- Transaction Process System, 200
- Trust
 - as coordinating mechanism, 179–180
 - in cryptomarkets, 180–181
 - of markets for illicit drugs, 177–181
- University
 - graduates, 49
 - support component, 49, 57
- Value chain integration
 - analytical frameworks and estimation strategies, 116–117
 - Chiapas, 106–107
 - coffee consuming countries, 104–105
 - coffee cooperatives, 113–114
 - cooperative impact evaluation results, 130–134
 - cooperative members, 107–108
 - determinants of cooperative participation, 117–122
 - determinants of participation in cooperatives, 126–130
 - fair trade movement, 108–110
 - outcome variables of interest, 122–125
 - results, 126
 - sampling and data collection, 114–116
 - social capital, 111–112
 - vertical integration of value chain, 105–106
- Venture capital (VC), 162, 166–169
- War economy, 60
- WeChat, 193n3
- Weibo micro-blogging website, 193n3
- Weibo search volume, 218–220